well, our first year as an upper schooler! we have had a bundle of fun, haven't we? Ok.-

one more time!

Soccer season!

Football season!

Super Dickey!

The fun we wanted to have!

(you had it (Alan),
I didn't!)

well, we still have til our senior year!

Take care,

Love
Anna

Sharon,
Coach Strabbs!
Here he comes.
There he goes.
I glad we got
the better friends
this year. I'll miss you! Love,
Gretchen

Sharon
We really had a fun time together (I think) I'm glad we get to suffer together in English.
I hope that next year
we can suffer together
some - more!!

Love,

Community

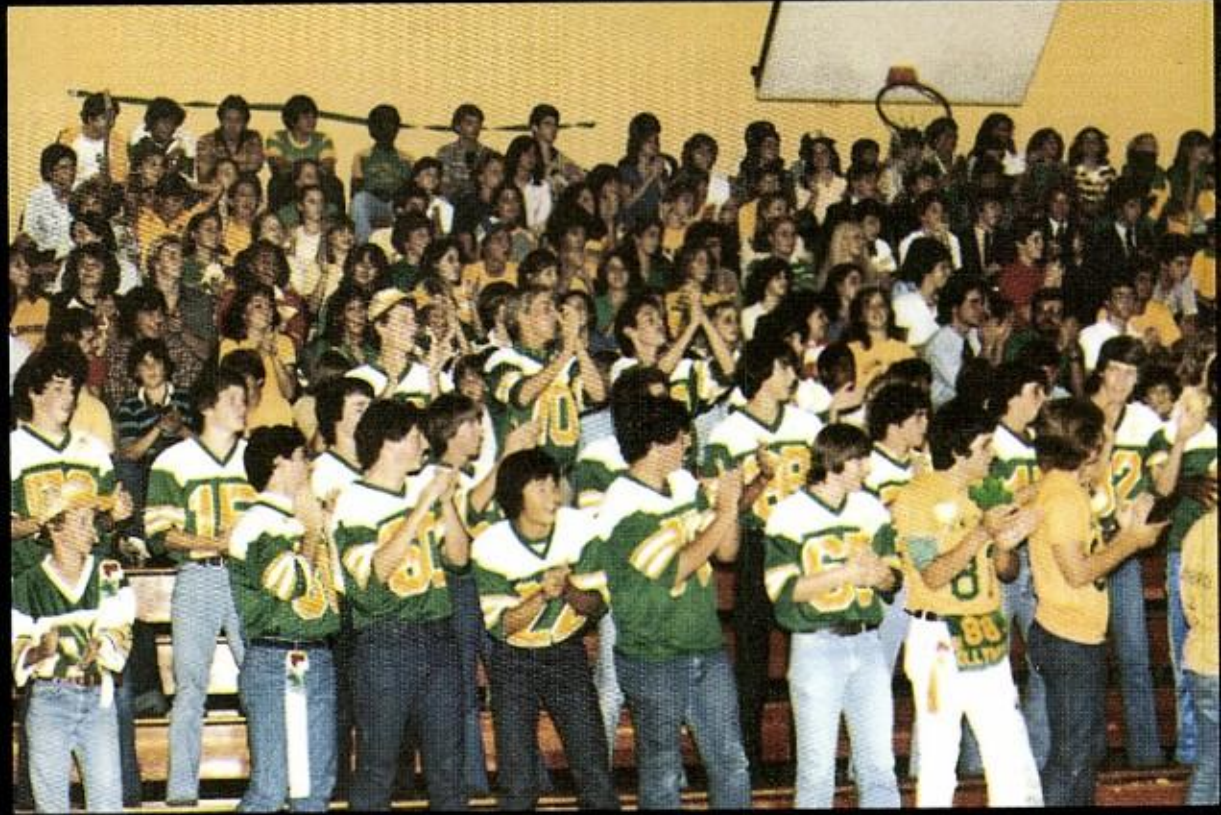

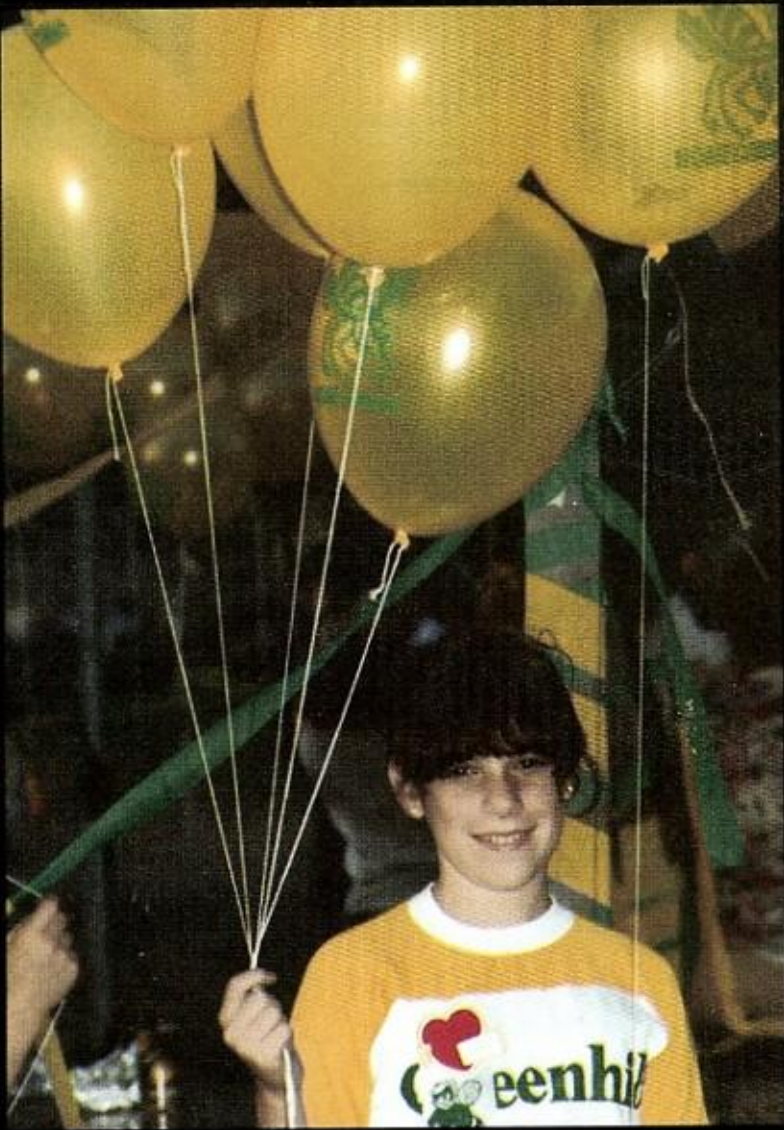

Service Day

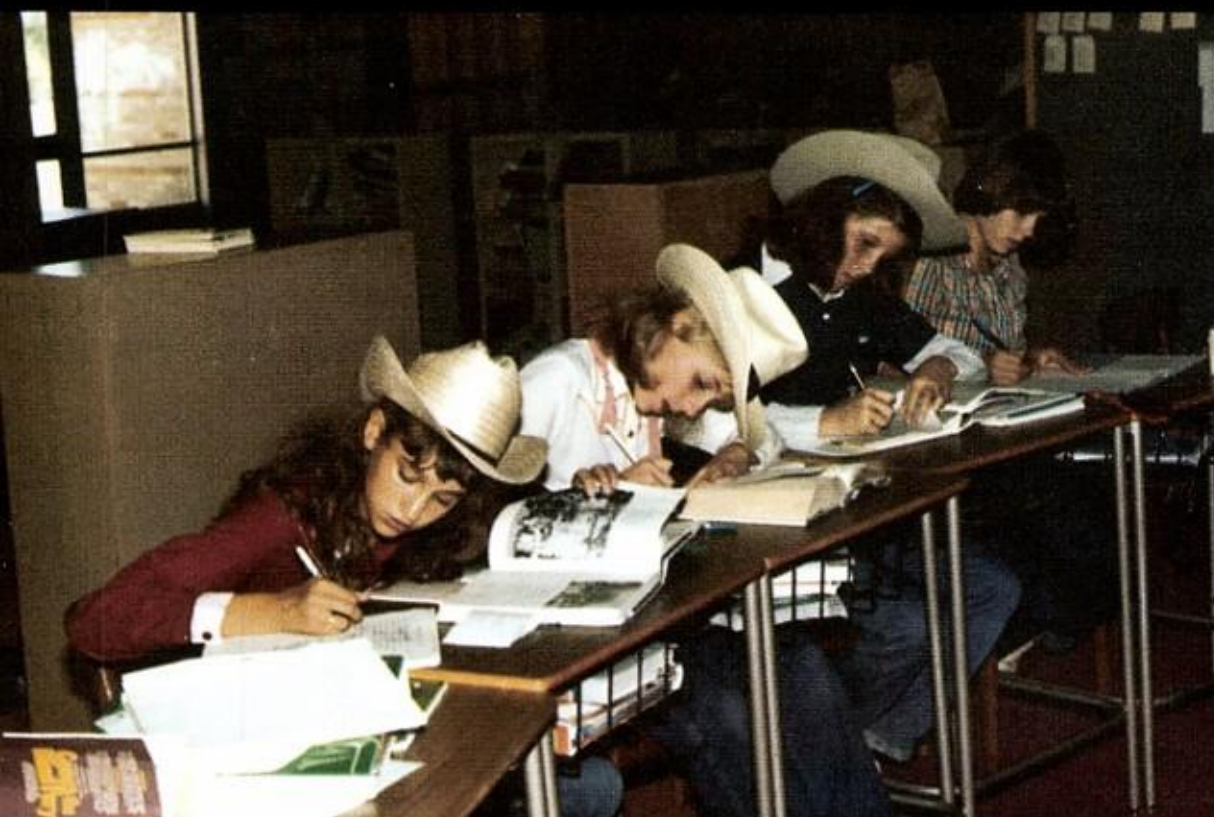

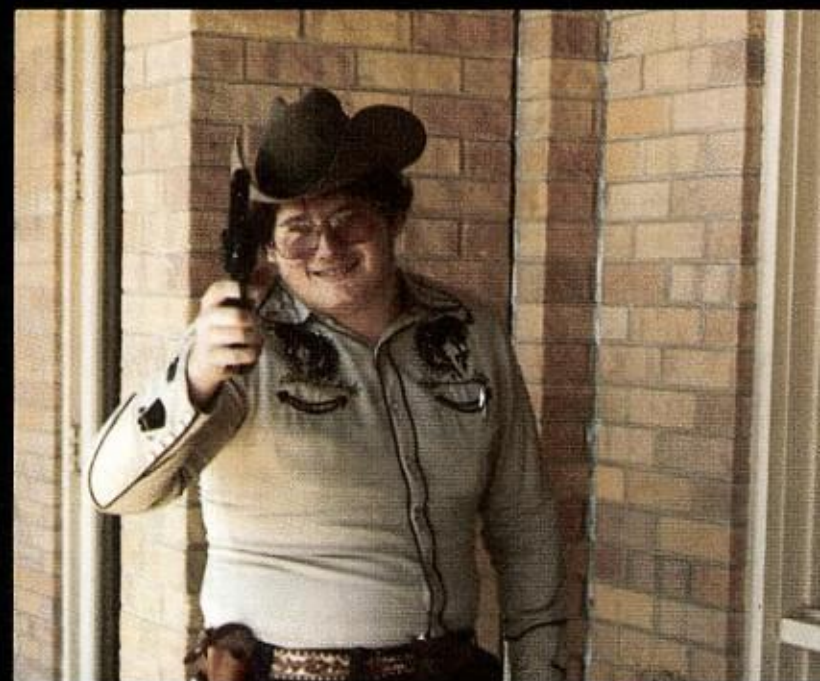

Each year Upper School students and faculty members give a day to community service. This year, the projects included a skate-a-thon to raise money for a speaker by the freshmen; painting houses of the needy by the sophomores; a general clean-up of houses for senior citizens, as well as passing out voter registration applications by the juniors; and a renovation of the student center by the seniors. The day provided an opportunity for the students and faculty to work together and at the same time have fun.

Homecoming

Week

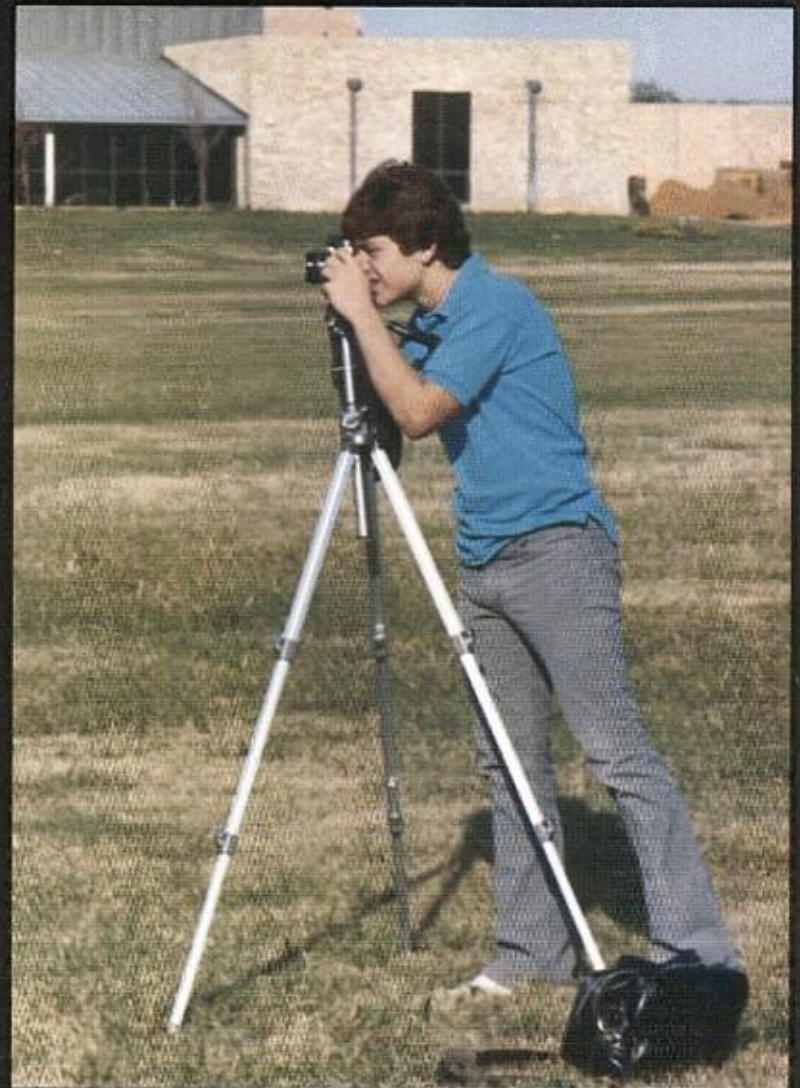

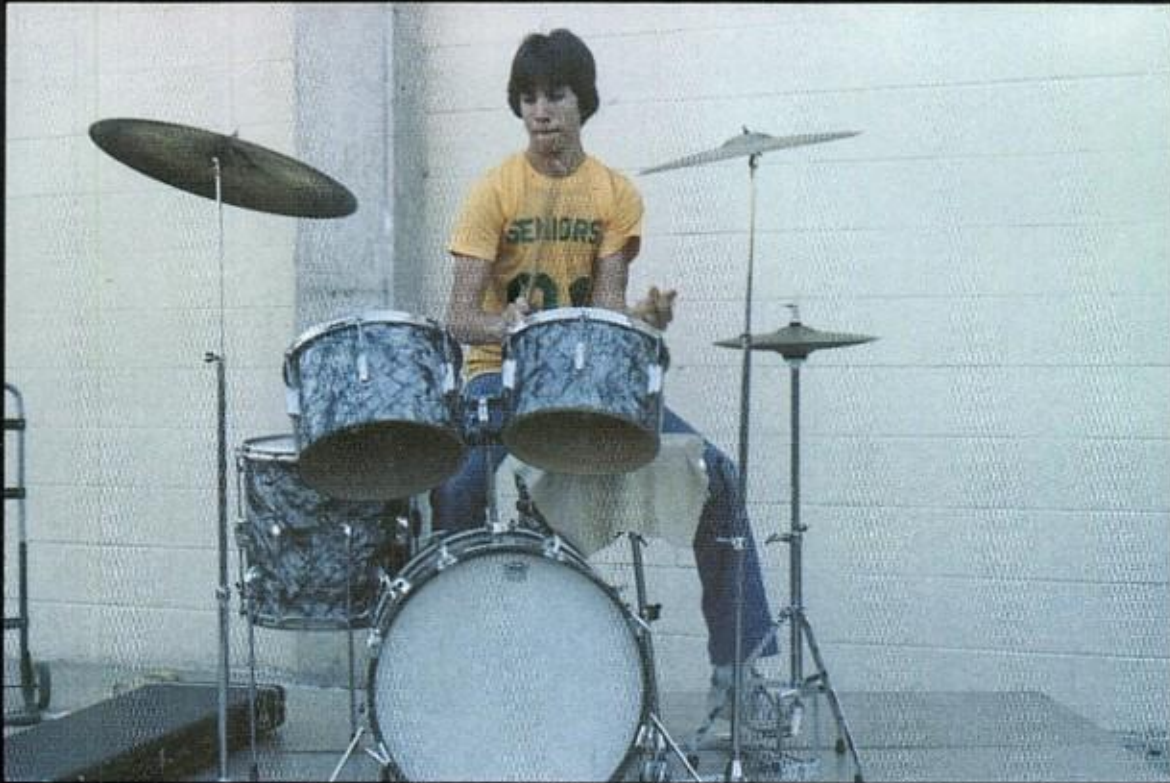

Homecoming Week got off to a great start this year. Fair Day was Monday, followed by dress-up days on Tuesday through Friday. Hat Day, Sock Day and Western Day had superb participation from the pre-schoolers through the upper schoolers. Green and Gold Day was climaxed by an awesome all-school pep rally in the gym. All of the varsity teams had competitions on Friday. Deidre Reishus was crowned Homecoming Queen and the mothers of senior athletes were honored at halftime. The Hornets were defeated by the Casady Cyclones but the post-game dance and festivities were lively and well attended. It was, without a doubt, the most successful Homecoming in years.

Fine

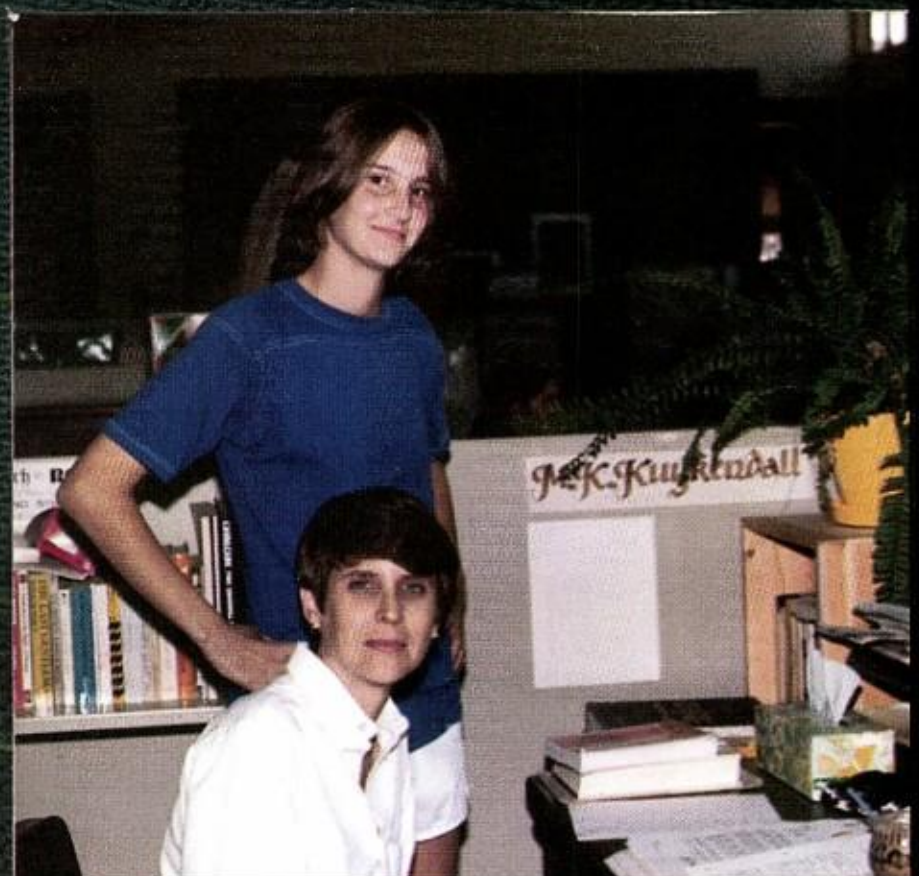

Arts

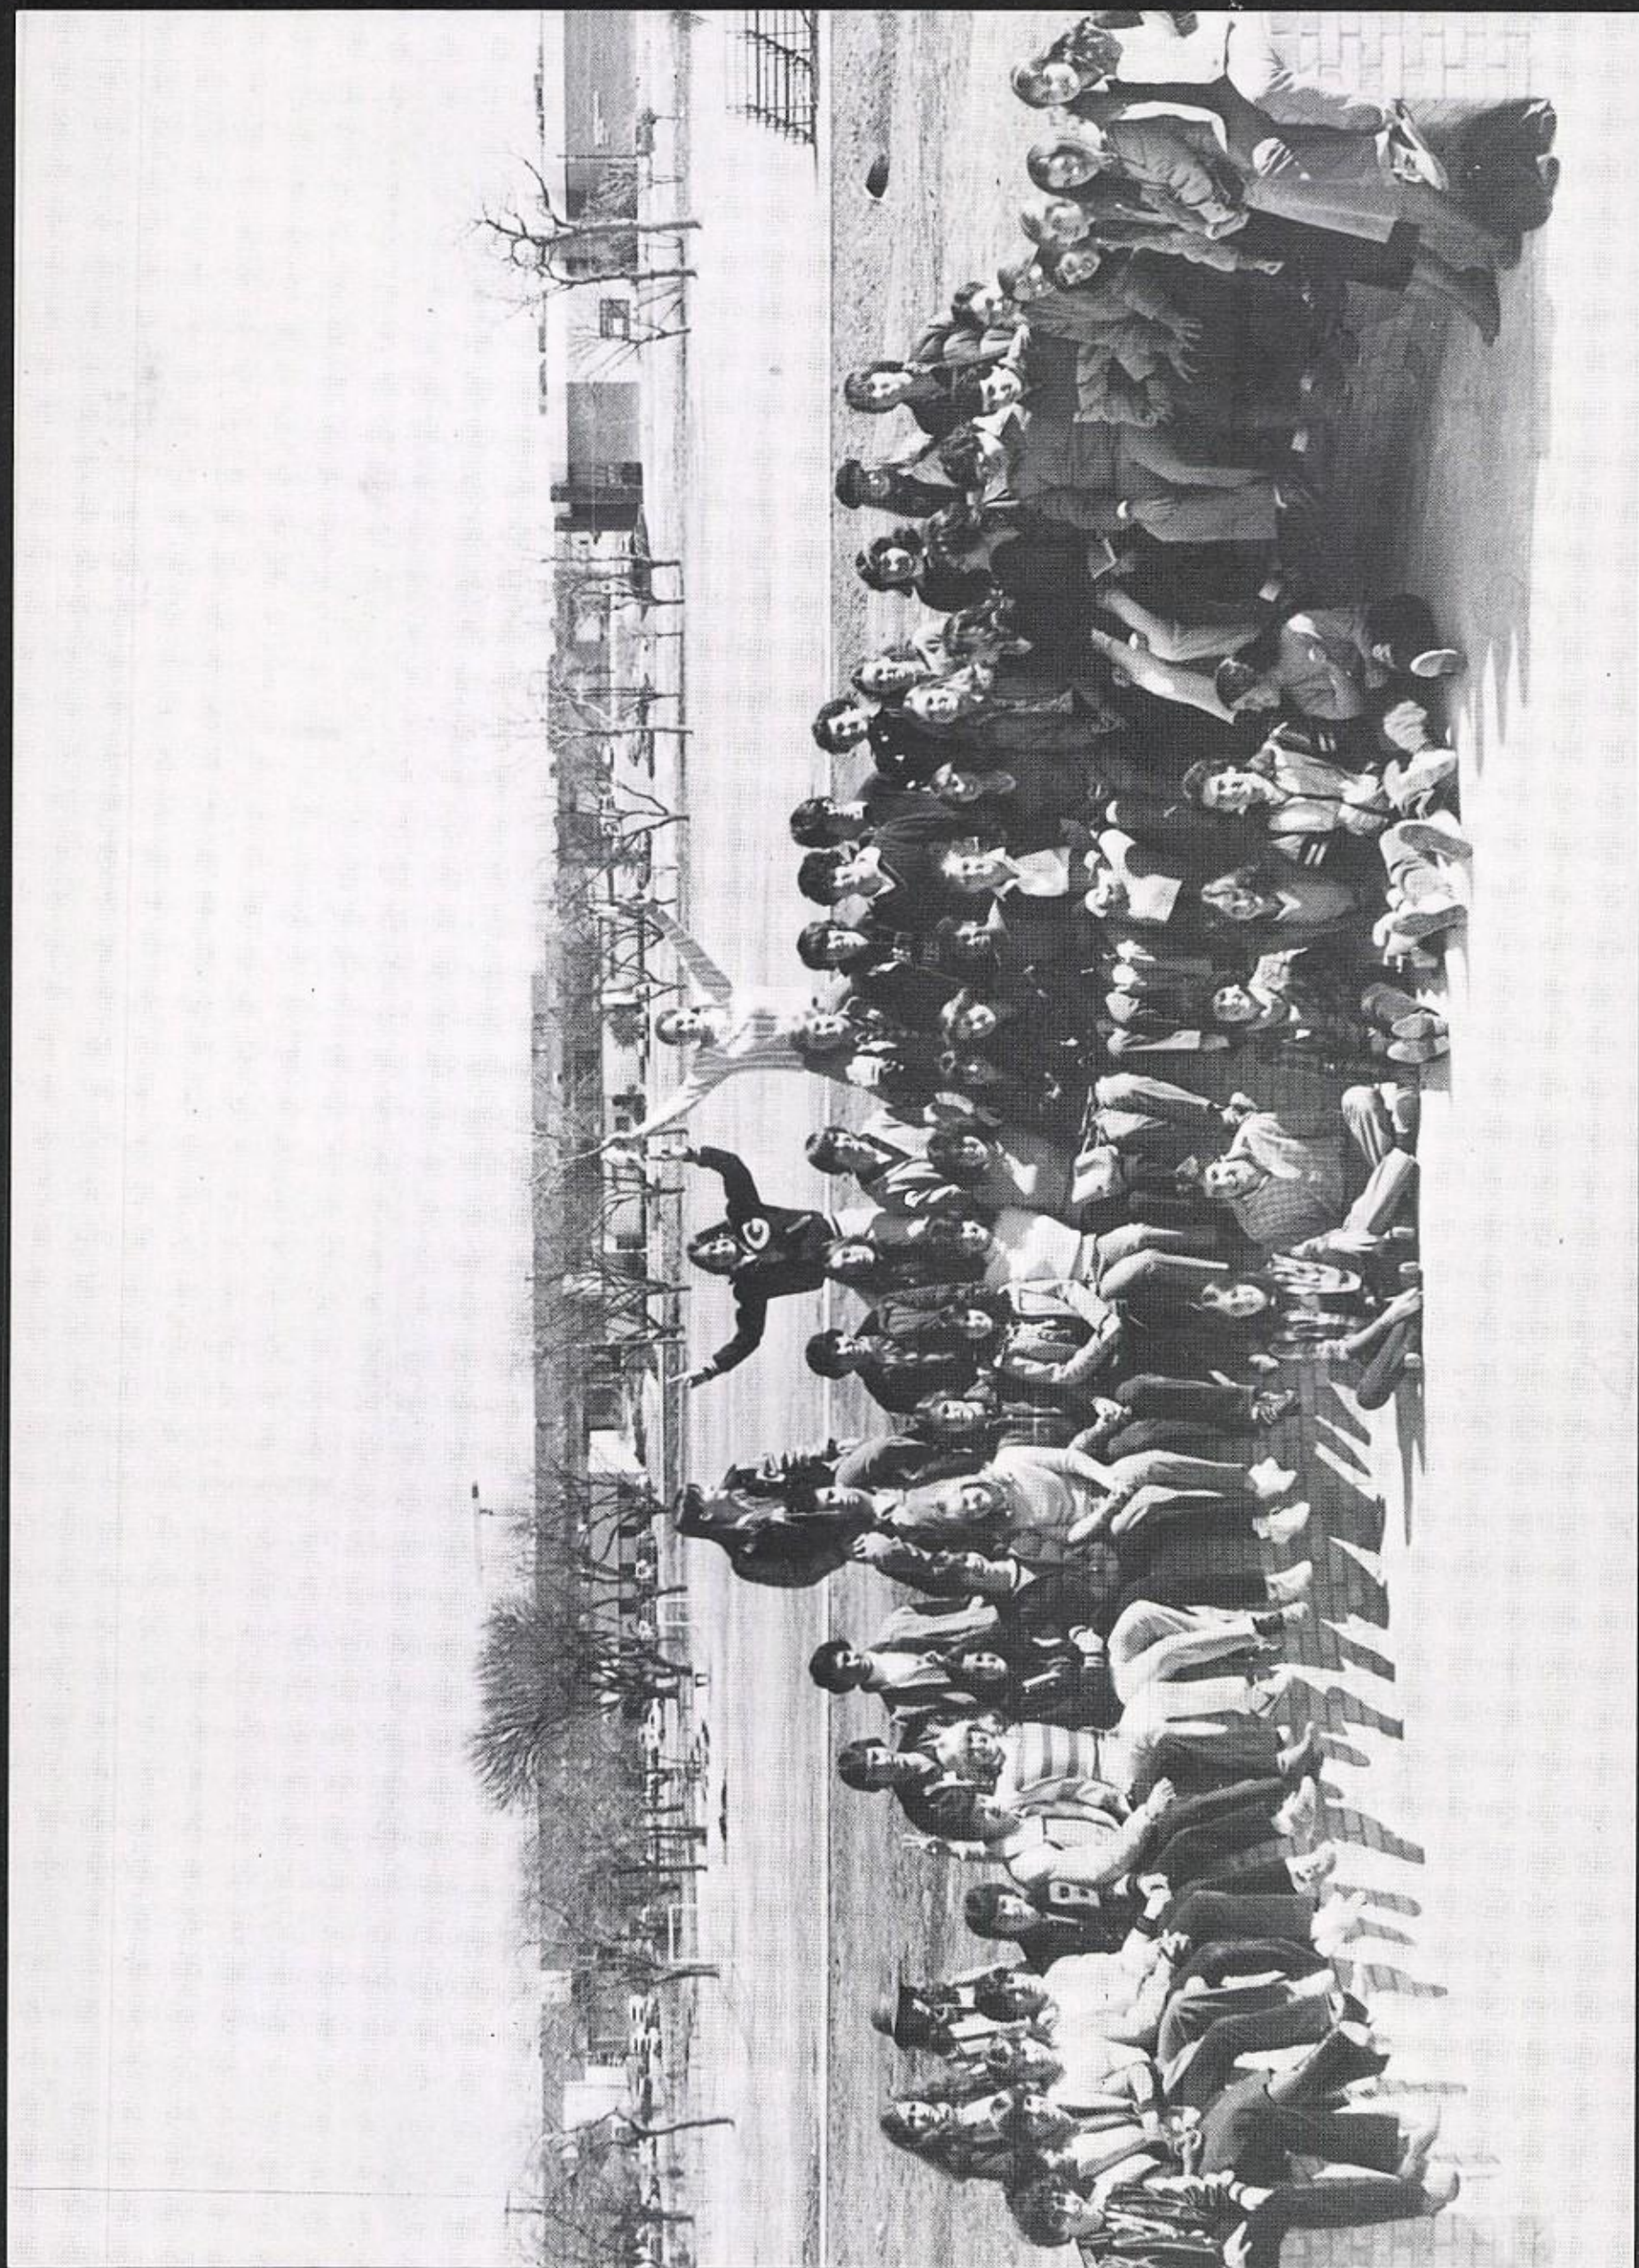

Timmi Kuykendall

Timmi Kuykendall has been at Greenhill since 1977. In these past four years she has been a source of support, guidance, and friendship to all students. Whether one goes to her for academic or personal advice, she is always willing to listen and give encouragement. She is active in school and class activities. She is an enthusiastic and inspiring teacher. With great respect, admiration, and gratitude, the Senior Class dedicates the 1981 Cavalcade to Timmi Kuykendall.

To the following: Rob, I promise not to forget your middle name (Rob, the Bob, the Howie); Peppard, I promise you that someday I will speak properly (without an accent); Diane, someday I will translate all those words for you. I wish I had you in more of my classes; Stuart, I promise I will play tennis with you someday; Erin, I promise I will be able to spell all the words right; Ellis, who poked at me the whole year, I leave thousands of egg sandwiches; Cathy S., I wish I knew you better my Junior year. And finally, Alan, who has been a real friend, not only to me but to everyone else, I will someday repay you for all the rides you gave me and all the things you have done for me. I will never forget the good times that we have had!

I would like to thank my father and mother for giving me the opportunity to study in the United States, and for suffering through the years that I could not be with them. I know thanking them is not enough. All the trouble they went to for me cannot be repaid by just saying thank you. By graduating this year I hope to satisfy my parents while fulfilling my duty to them.

You pass the days

You don't get something for nothing
You don't get freedom for free
You won't get wise
With sleep still in your eyes
No matter what your dreams might be

Waiting for someone to call
And turn your world around Looking for an answer to
The questions you have found Looking for An open door

What you own is your own kingdom
What you do is your own glory
What you love is your own power
In your head is the answer
Let it guide you along
Let your heart be the anchor

RUSH

I, Robert James Anderson, being of unsound mind and trashed out body, leave to the following: Doug M: some excellent times partying, many games of quarters, a case of Earlanger. Lelend H: 101 rock trivia questions, a chug-a-lug contest you almost won. Lynn S: 1 more year, the song "Thank You". Jennifer: many runs to the liquor store, a bottle of Mr. Daniels. Tony G: my great algebra abilities. Rebecca K: all the hope in the world that someday, somehow, somewhere we will meet again and the promise that everything will work out in the end. Anna: a complete collection of Rush albums. Sevak: a one way trip home via U.P.S. Chell: a certain person at a certain party. Gina: a memorable time at the UFO concert. Kent: memories of the F.N.D.T. Keith: a years supply of Copenhagen. Mr. Kilmer, thanks for all your help and explanations on Einstein. Mr. Williams: Rush's version of Xanadu. Susan W: 2 more years and a LAGNAF banner. My friends outside of school: David, Scott, Phil, Charlie: some good times cruising Forest and all we have drunk. Jeff, Tom, Cindy, Lena, John and all the rest: some great times at Northaven park. And finally, to my parents: my deepest love and thanks for giving me such a fine education and sticking by me. I love you. Lastly and least, Greenhill, goodbye forever. I made it.

Robert Anderson

My teacher told me, "Boy you're no good Just because you don't do what you should
You better shape up, or you're gonna fail."
But I said, "I'm leaving cuz this is a jail."
And I know what you're thinkin'
But don't pity me, oh no
I'll be better off out on my own.

I suppose that the first order of business is to thank my parents for putting up with my abrasive self for seventeen years. Thank you very much for exposing me to our gypsy life style. Thanks for Alabama, Chicago, Irving, Istanbul, Bucharest, Cresskill, Greenhill, and perhaps most of all, a year in Tuebingen, where I learned so much. To my sister I would like to say that I miss you and that one of these days we are going to have to get together for a good, clean, healthy fight, just like old times. I would like to thank Ross, Stuart, Sonny, John, Lisa, Heather, Kimi, Julie, Michelle, Robin, and Helen for memories of jogging Forest on Friday night, and for being such good friends. I want to thank all of Klasse 10A in Kepler Gymnasium (1978-1979) for being like a second family to me and being perhaps the best friends I've ever had. To my old TFL group I would like to say that I am no longer angry. We all probably realize now that a year is a long time and that people change. If things can go wrong, they will go wrong. Yet, I am somehow happier now, and the way things worked out were probably for the best. I would like to thank Thomas Rupp for making me look at the world in many different ways. Remember, if Franz-Josef wins, I've got our Wicks-o-theque all lined up and all you have to do is sail to America. Lastly, some advice to the Freshmen: Have fun and above all, don't argue politics with friends.

- ... To all friends and acquaintances—(mentioned or not)—thanks for being part of the puzzle to my life.
- ... To Mrs. Parham's third period Spanish class—SALGO!!
- ... To my one and only source of income—my favorite client "Hollywood", I leave a new contract negotiation. We're moving on up to the big times now! ILY!
- ... As one Prez to another, Big Al, all I can say is we did a darn good job. From Singers to commencement—we made it!
- ... Keith—you went for it!! Good luck on the hill without us. ILY!
- ... To Brad I leave this thought—I tried to un-do what had been done, but the damage was too bad. You were able to, and now it's my turn to look to tomorrow and forget yesterday. I love you.
- ... To Cheri I leave my trademark on your bumper—drive it with pride.
- ... To the Senior Class of 1981—we made it!—from summer reading to senior privileges to May 29, 1981! The best of luck to all of you wherever your paths may lead! We were crazy, we were fun, we were the class of 1981!!!!
- ... Mrs. K—thanks for everything. Not only did you help me make it this year—you made it too! It's been swell knowing you! ILY!
- ... To my bestest friend Diane—all I want to leave are the memories of the fun times we have had together. Thanks for the lease to your room and BLTs when needed! ILY!
- ... Chell and Mary—you've been like sisters. Words can not express the way I feel towards the two of you. I've met hundreds of people in my life, but none will leave the mark that y'all have left. It's been great on the hill together—but now we will be challenged by higher goals in life. Even though miles may separate us we will always be close. I'm not saying good-bye—but see ya later—for I will indeed see you again one tomorrow.
- ... Mom . . . Thanks for the understanding, guidance, and comfort. But especially . . . thanks for the love that has enabled me to make it this far in life.
- ... Greenhill . . . you've been a big part of me for four long, hard enjoyable years. I'm leaving you now—not out of want, but out of necessity. It's been REAL!!

I, Susan Bauman, being, want to leave Greenhill my thanks for making the last 7 years of my life what they have been. Thanks for the memories.

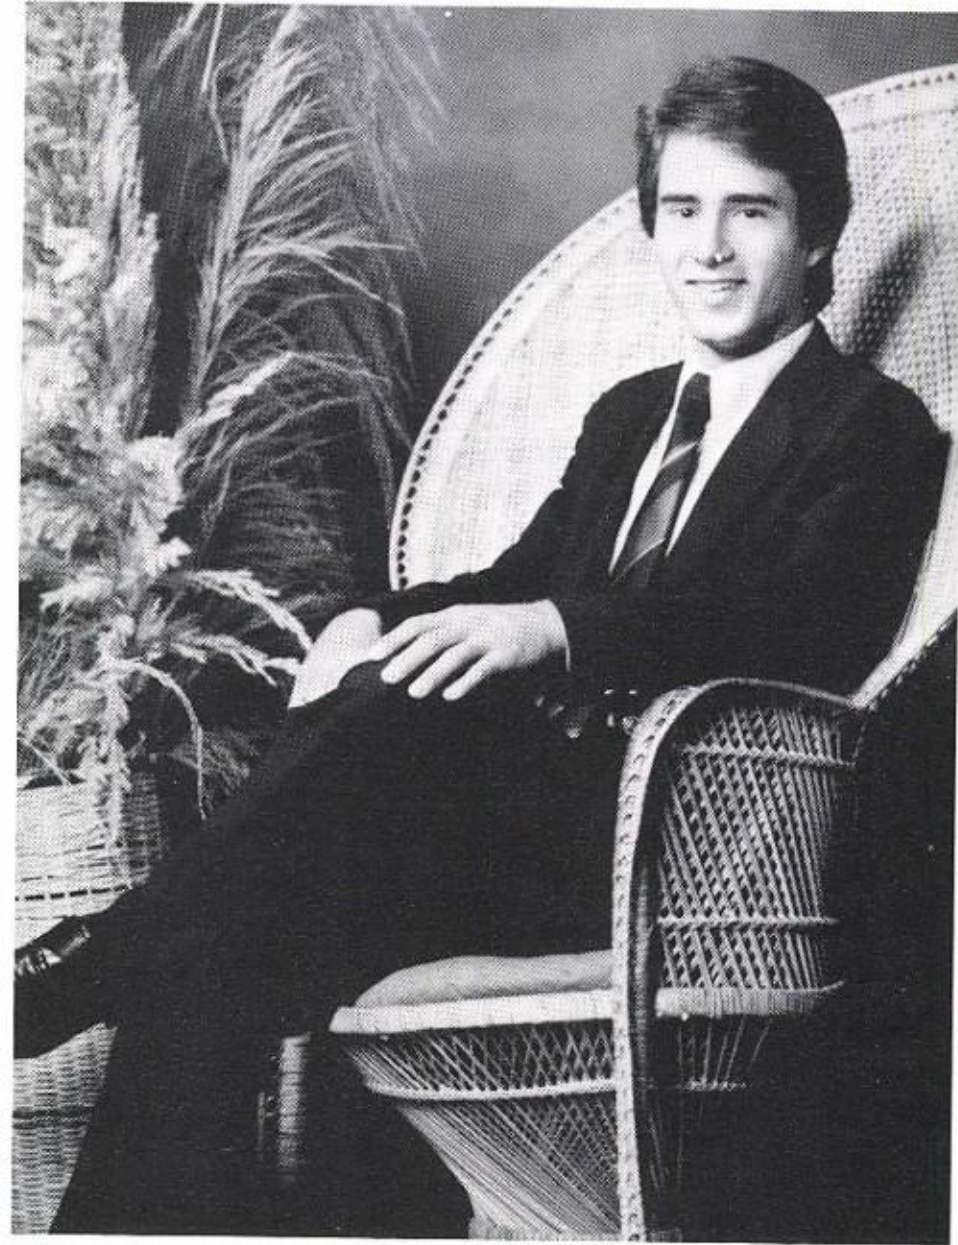

To all the special people I leave:

Chell: yellow pants; mud; icecreaming; stupid fights; and a little big sis. Rob: 17 Mickey Mouse pencils; "Thanks for all my help"; a surprise party; NYC; real piano lessons; Billy, Bogie, and Frankie; a blinking watch; 1/2 of my gullibility; messy hair; and forever friendship. Alan: a kiss (Hershey's of course); Frontage Road; the other 1/2 of my gullibility; the ultimate chaperone; less ticklishness; and charm. Nat: a Foley party; Speedy-G; and my hat. Mary: a desk to write on; a bracelet that I didn't steal; and gum. Winz: Clarence—what else do you need? Beth: M&M's; the lake; and an instant cure for mono. Paul-y: Polo; and tons of anyways. Erin: a "pop"; and a proper Texas accent. Su-Le: MY name; and "Dorlin". Kate: a very special guy; Chinese food; photographs of HIM; and a wonderful new friendship. Mikey: Su-Le; and my thanks for always listening. Jay: a "pass" in photography; steak bones; and 1000 salads at the Egyptian. Bo: your singing; and portraits (to be taken in warm weather). Bernie: lessons in starting your car in reverse. The 5 Cards: success; and a photographer for all your album covers & a professional groupie—ME. Timmi: guitars; a mountain; and my thanks for being my friend as well as my "other mother". Gonzales: Lea to pick on; and my thanks for always having something to say to me (whether it made sense or not). Lea: a warning to look out for Gonzales; a singer; Mr. Personality; Screech; Ab-Norm-Al; and 3 more years on the Hill. Mom and Daddy: thanks for all the TLC. ILY.

And now to myself, I leave the future . . .

I, David Vance Bock, being of sound mind and service, do hereby bequeath: Mrs. Kuykendall, I leave some peace and quiet. Mr. Manes, Mr. Kittleman, Mr. Eaton, and Mrs. Ellis, I leave a working set of game paddles. Mr. Tunnel, I leave a five year vendetta and a rainbow of color. Dr. B, Mrs. E, and Mr. K, I leave school without affecting any of your classes. To Mike, I leave all of the computers, etc., for you three to fight over. To the computer club, I leave a disc of games. To the Risk club, I leave several million programs. To the seniors, I leave all of the memories that should have been forgotten. To the juniors, I leave Mrs. Wolfram's college counseling sessions. To the faculty, I leave you, and the problem of educating my cousin, Ben, and him the problem of going to classes in the upper school. I finally leave all my friends, relatives, and teachers with this question: Is there life after Greenhill?

I, Robin Butler, tired of trying to think of an original will, hereby give up and leave to Helen: a successful career making art displays. To Ross: a plan to get you and Folly together (again.) To Anna: a night of being your nurse (maybe I'll meet your mother face-to-face). To Jen: Ram pictures and a video tape of a SNL so you can always take a Saturday Night awareness test. To Amy (Aime): a Sunday morning paint job (you've got a future in soccer publicity). To Kristin: the right to be an official silly nerd. To Michelle: a trip to discover oceanography and the fact that you are the only one who really understood me. To Julie: the secret of my father's pamphlets. To AR: the promise we'll conquer the world (I promised). To Marc: all the credit for the outstanding success of the ASSU and thanks for the 4 a.m. talks in my neighbors yard. (It made Texas a little easier to handle). To Sophia: (who without her help this wouldn't be possible) carry on the traditions of Grover and demolish soccer balls. And to all my friends (you know who you are):

We've been through some things together
With trunks of memories still to come
We found things to do in stormy weather,
Although these changes have come with your chrome heart shining in the sun—
Long may you run.

And so now we must part and go our separate ways, but remember, the memories we've made will be ours always.

So many men seem destined to settle for something small,
But I won't rest until I know I have it all
So don't ask where I'm going, just listen when I'm gone
And far away you'll hear me singing to the dawn:
Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirits can run free
Gotta find my corner of the sky.

I, Kristen Dardaganian, being of tired mind and gymnastic body, do hereby leave to the following: Heather: shoe polish, cookies, six flags, the Braidy Bunch, next years freshmen, a shoulder to cry on, and a great friendship with memories to come: Stuart: talks, 3rd period in the library, a conference room full of magazines to deface, and the involuntary ecology club, motto included; Jennifer: crazy days of upper school, a locker (full and overflowing), someone else with an identical schedule, "class notes", your boy problems, 10 1/2 in shorts, Six Flags, the Braidy Bunch, and Srs. '81! S.C.: a new football, a skit where no one laughs, long, curly locks and a pair of strong glasses. F.T.: choir president, memories of the Orient, don't hold the hands of the ones you don't love, a ride home, and a daughter you can keep; M.M: our first decade of friendship, many talks, low-rider and strato-cruiser . . . see you in the Army, choir tours, "Oh, go climb a glacier", my jogging ability, New Years '80 and an unexpected visit; R.G: a ride to church, choir tours, talks, a sweater, and a prayer—say one for me, too; J.L: L.S., a bottle of sand, the astronomy club, and my morals; G.M: our talks and secrets; K.E: ISAS, Kris squared, and a great friendship; Gonzales: a cure for your twitch, and thanks for being such a good adviser; Dr. B: thank you for your support; Mrs. Ellis: my injuries, my little sister and my hope that the team will continue to grow; Bob Mighell: my deepest respect and appreciation. You guided me through high school with a strong faith. Brad: the car when you turn 16 with your radio station, Upper School, and an ear that's willing to listen anytime; Stefani: 6 more years, Upper School friends when you were 7, ballet, the hope that you can continue with gymnastics, a box of barretts, and my love. Mother and Daddy: Thank you for all the wonderful opportunities and patience of helping me through. I hope I never let you down. Greenhill: I leave a smile and my deepest appreciation for 5 years of an excellent education. Finally, to The Lord, I leave my life. I love you all. Goodbye.

I, Valencia Drake, who spent an 8th year on the Hill just to write this will, leave to the following: David S: the jokes that brought tears to our eyes and enough D. R. look-alikes to last forever. Loren & Lauren: 2 more years at "Greenhill Prison"—have fun! Kelly M: a safe ride to school. Bwenda: a speech class that twanslates W's to R's. Mrs. Kuykendall: my congrats and gratitude for being able to handle an advisee like me. I respect you to the highest. Mr. Kittleman: my respect and assurance that there will never be an old goat like you! Mr. Gonzales: a matchmaking award of excellence. You're the best! And now to the "Click" who made my eight years here a buzz: Nini: the good times and many laughs we shared, definitely TTM! They meant alot and always will. See ya next fall-ha! Kathi: your very own Elaine's to keep your figure. You're a wonderful girl. Take care of Donny! Laurie: whatever you want because inside that little body is a great person! Stay that way! Cathy: thanks for all the rides, your own polo shop, all the food you can eat, and my appreciation for the great advice only you could give. I love you for it! Jenny: Bermuda—my permission to wear mascara, friends for next year only on account that you won't forget me . . . I'll never forget cheerleading and top secrets—they were tops to me! I'll miss you! Lori: the one who abandoned the "click" after 7 years, M.F., a hit record, 2 cheerleading years together, long talks, good times we shared which are all a special part of me. I missed you this year! Last, but most important forever, my family: I leave you my thanks for raising me in an environment of love, togetherness, and devotion.  to my special friends who have made the past ten years just slip by:

 Valencia—thanks for all our laughs and good luck in the future.
 Linda—thanks for always lending a helping hand; it was really appreciated.
 Laura—half a carnation I owe you and thanks for a friendship that was always there. Laurie—lil' momma! thanks for being so fun to be with, don't ever change. Kathi—big momma! thanks for all our groovin' times. I hope our friendship continues to grow. Diane—from Pershing to here, I thought I would never make it. DT! Kennels will never be the same. Jenny—GL, IMY! Cathy—from slumber parties, to the lake, to happiness and rarely to sadness, we've kept together. You are a beautiful person inside and out, and I hope we stay close. Thanks again for an irreplaceable friendship. Lori—from my moods to yours, from understanding each other and trying to help each other solve our problems is only the beginning. A friend is someone who knows all about you and still likes you—you truly fit that description. I don't know what I would do without you. LYLAS! I love you! Betsy—the friendship we cultivated mainly over a six week period has grown to be an everlasting relationship. The strength I get from our friendship is endless. I love you today more than yesterday, but not as much as tomorrow. No matter where I go to school—we'll always stay close.
 BTMN-TYY! I love you! Mr. K.—thank you isn't enough for what you did for me. I owe it all to you! You have my greatest admiration.
 And last but definitely not least, my family: Mom and Dad—I don't know where to begin to thank you for 18 wonderful years. Your love and understanding has been a source of inspiration and encouragement to me. I am grateful to you for giving me the opportunity to achieve a good education and the support to accomplish it. Y'all are the greatest!
 I love you more than anything. Bev, Larry, Jason—thanks for always being there. The love y'all show me means a lot. I hope y'all know how much I love you! Mif—I don't think a brother and sister could be closer. I love you—stupid!! Finally, to Greenhill, I leave full of gratitude and with few regrets!

Jenny—an easy senior year, Elaine's, and our common last initial. Leland—an apology for that "long-distance call from my brother" Bo—Spanish vocabulary tests. Brenda—our Junior year and neighbors. Pam—long distance identical families, and friendship. Laura—our two things in common. Linda—comparable grades. Dr. B.—my appreciation and respect for all that you've done. To "All my friends at Greenhill" clique—Valencia—never getting caught off campus, Friday's, the ability of being such a jokester. Anita—momas no. 1, Las Vegas with L and L, and fun at UT. Cathy—colorful yet shady friendship which we'll always keep. To the dearest, most special people: Ann—wildness, Target, Hawaii, songs, important talks, and an infinite number of meaningful memories. Our friendship is immeasurable and unforgettable. We've grown together tremendously and our friendship will, too. I Love You. To BF, Kathi—Bahajollyrancherpashaw, Elaine's, oppy scars, kitchen table, C and W, party-eves, Donny, laughing and talking, couldhavebeenwiththem, drinking, summer fun, college calls, cavalcade material, all our unforgettable, unmentionable, unbelievable crazy times. We've been through a lot together and I couldn't have survived without you. I'm talking: you're more than just a fantastic friend . . . I Love You. The Ravkinds—my other family . . . y'all have all my love and appreciation. Cliff and Brad—I'm the luckiest sister!! We'll have a ball next year. I love and need you both. Dad and Karen—Together on Wednesdays and Sundays was the most meaningful experience I could've ever had. Quality is far better than quantity. I admire, respect and LOVE you. Mom—we made it (even with all the pressures) I can't express my love and admiration for you. I only hope I can raise my children the way you raised me. You're the best ! I LOVE YOU.  What kind of man have I become?
 All of the years I've spent in

 And still I'm in the dark

 Sent away to die—never quite knowing why
 Sometimes it makes no sense

I, Douglas Grossman, after fifteen years, leave to the following: First, Mr. Kittleman: the time has finally arrived for your "yip-yap-yah-hoos" to graduate. I've respected you as a coach, now I leave admiring you as a teacher as well. Dr. B: you're one of the best things that ever happened to Greenhill; keep teaching and caring. Madame Blanche: I leave all the Franglais you can digest along with memories of KNOCK, L'AVARE, and a bowl of "profittrolles". Mr. Kilmer: thanks for the great years of advising and teaching. Mrs. Thompson: I leave many hours of conjectural supplementation, a few unsolved Diophantine equations, Beauregard the paquet fish, and Lui Hui in a vacuum. Mrs. Seldin: don't worry about casting pearls before swine, as we will all benefit from it in time. Above all, Mrs. Eastus and Mr. Norris: my deepest thanks for your generous attention and constructive criticism. Marc A. I leave an unfinished game of Monopoly and a piece of paper from room 204. Jay Bird: a thousand pieces of A.B.C. gum. Sego: in 5 years we'll have a reunion and meet in the science building for a nice quiet lunch (don't worry, Dr. Rule, Tom will pick up his trash). Stuart: no more trips to Meisel. Ellis T.: I leave one last "Douggee . . . pleeeese!" and a termite laugh. John (Moiphe'), I leave your original "Disco Crucifixion" and a bowl of frozen blueberries. Sherryl H., Louis Z., and Sheli B.: I pass down a great tradition. Finally, Thomas H. Perryman: our time has come—thanks for the memories. Mom and Dad: whether it was the Thanksgiving Day Play in fourth grade, those first exams in M.S., the first edition of the paper, or graduation; you were always there and always will be, to laugh and cry. I know you care. Julie: learning can be fun, so take advantage of what you've got. Good luck in your final years, and remember, it's your turn to feed the dog. Greenhill I've watched you grow, and now I leave after 15 years with the education of a lifetime.

I leave a very happy birthday party. To Stuart S. I give sneaking out after midnight, London, and a cat named S., and friendship. Mike gets the car. Dearest Jane, I bequeath unto you one case of WT and RB for your friends, a seventeen year old I, and anything you want. To all my teachers I have had over the years, I give my thanks. Thanks. To Marion I give C/W music and my love. To Daddy I leave my love and thanks for everything. To Mother I give my love. And to the rest, you know who you are, I leave whatever is left. Goodnight all and sweet dreams.

I, Steve Heizer, being of intellectual mind and sleek body, do hereby leave: Al: one pr. of Jordache jeans one size larger, decent tapes for long trips, and the memory of an unending mile. Sevak: "cute" blue overalls and my paper. Rob A.: a case, a fast car, and a girl. Rob S.: piano lessons. Winsor: a disco and dance lessons. Doug: a real newspaper. M. Matyas: a math contest, calculus at the last minute, a frisbee, and a spike. John M.: instincts, a transcendentalist thought, and smoking in your car. Tom: one pr. of shades, the presidency, and an undiscovered Hollywood. LP 1 and 2: your mother's opinion of me. Susie: a locker next to mine. Ellis: a new hat collection. Jennifer W.: the science bldg. and our long talks. Lynn: a telephone call and emergency break. Jennie: a date. Jill U.: a ticket for a free Big Mac. The cross country team: a good-looking girls' team. Gregor: a water jug. Kateri: a mind and disillusionment. Dee: a dance where everyone else dances the first dance. Brenda: the '80 prom, thought provoking calls, and my love and thanks for your inspiration. Angela: long talks where you only listened, an MG roadster, 2 more years, a brother who will leave you something decent in his will, and my love and thanks. Harry: writing papers on the library floor, trips to East Texas, a girls car, the knowledge that I am always with you and that anything we do is great. Thanks for all the help, patience, and love. You have my deepest respect. Mr. B.: my thanks for your efforts and a new set of priorities. Ms. Roman: the history we made and that which I rewrote on the exam. Mrs. Eastus: Krutch and memories of your class. Mr. Williams: my deepest thanks and respect for your advisory and our exploration of life and thought. Greenhill: thanks for the opportunity. To my parents: my deepest love and respect. Thanks for making it possible. The girls with good taste, I leave me. And for those who don't want me, I leave good taste.

I, Paula Himel, would like to thank all my friends for making the past two years at Greenhill special to me: Natalie: Memories of late-night drives, Haagen Dazs, "Great Outdoors," many planned double-dates, A. S., Polo aftershave (what a turn-on!) the most exciting time of my life at B. T.'s party "Oh! I didn't see you there!" I could go on forever, but all those experiences don't even come close to saying how special our friendship is to me. You're the best friend I have, and remember, you can have as many "Sweet Nothings" as you want! I love ya!
 Susan: Tons of thanx for being such a good friend. ANYWAYS, you're one of the few people I can look down on! Stay friends forever, K? K! Deirdre: Forgiveness for forgetting my name when you called me, "Mad Love" summer '80. Bo: Perfect quizzes in Classics, shorter socks, a rendezvous at 5:03.27 A.M. Bo, stay friends forever, and good luck. Rob: Best of luck at "Pigville" and with your acting career, also a million S.S. men. P.S. Say "hi" to Billy for me. Jay: a lifetime supply of gum, Nabisco Devil's Food Cookies, and POLO after shave; all the success in the future (I know you'll have it). David: I want to make one thing perfectly clear!! I hope we're buddies forever. P.S. Don't forget our secret handshake. Bernie: My hat and the right to use my dad's name. Mike: My darkroom ability and lots o'luck with tennis. I'll be lookin' for you in the "U.S. Open" (that's "Upper School Open"—just jokin'!) Beth: Lots of late drives past S. V.'s, memories of some good times together. Thanx. Chell: a car that doesn't SCREECH when you turn. Diane M.: a diet that works, a job as EXTRA at Sanger's, Keith. Diane T.: you're old locker, "Howdy! Where's Unison?" Erin: a drink of "pop." It's nice having another northerner around. Lynn S.: What else but "F. this S!" Leland: Bear hugs, footsies, and rude gestures in Math. Winsor: Success for the future; You're a great leader! Sherri: R. B., gum, more clothes (cuz you need them badly!) and two more years of success at Greenhill (as a cheerleader). Stay friends forever. Kelly: All the gum you want (as long as I get all the wrappers!) Elezabeth: Your fantastic taste in clothes! Gonzales: Que quiere, hombre? You're the greatest advisor! Mrs. Kuykendall: Lots of Canadian change, many hard-working student service groups. Shasta: The rest of the family to jump on. Eric: Five more successful years at Greenhill. Try to handle all the girls! Judy and Laurence: I've finally caught up to y'all! Finally, to Mom and Dad: I leave the cross-eyed teacher who had trouble with her students. Thanx for two fantastic years in Dallas, and I hope, many more to come. Thanx for helping me through all the rough spots and for providing me with an excellent educashun. I love you!! Lastly, (but definitely not leastly), to Greenhill I leave the entire collection of Julia Child cookbooks and reruns of "The Galloping Gourmet." R. G.: The key to my car whenever you want.

I, Kent Eric Hoskins, being of over-weight but sound body and a mosh-mind, do hereby leave a few Memories at Greenhill school. First, I wish to thank the teachers and administrators for giving me the opportunity to attend this fine school, and should I graduate, I will be eternally grateful. Next, I would like to leave a few memories with a few people. Ellis Telford, you have the honor of being my first victim because without you to release my anger on I might have done something foolish, like pick on someone bigger than me. I leave you a lot of bruises. To the Friday night Drinking Team, I leave my cooler and trunk. To the member Rob Anderson—thanks. Thank God somebody was over 18! A case of beer when I'm 18. To Doug Miers I leave a membership in NORMAL, wait till it's legal! To Sevak I leave a Dictionary and an English grammar book—read 'em! Finally, I wish to thank the football team for a great senior year. I grew a lot (mainly the gut, drinking after games). Most of all, I wish to thank Coach Smith for the effort he put into trying to make a player of me. The effort far exceeded what I put back into the team. But I hope, in retrospect, I helped in some way. Adios Greenhill.

Don't let your troubles get you down,
Don't waste a moment just wondering why
When everything goes wrong
You have to go on
Do it or die.

I can fool some of the people some of the time,
And the rest of the people the rest of the time,
But I can't fool my parents.

Cynthia Joy Leland

I, Cindy Leland, having totally lost my mind, do hereby bequeath the following: To Mrs. Eastus I leave my respect, my love, and my thanks for making me play the game even when I thought the rules were unfair. To Dr. Buchanan I leave my love for being a wonderful friend. To Mrs. Seldin I leave my love and my thanks for teaching me so much more than Art History. To Dr. Mooney, wherever you are, I leave my love—don't ask me why! To Madame White, I leave my Monday morning moods, although I am sure that you do not want them; snow-dances that did not always work; and my love and thanks for all the advice you have given me. To the Rule family, I leave free baby-sitting services, and my love. To Mr. Dashefsky, I leave a dirty joke that you have never heard. To Dana I leave hours of studying together, laughing and crying together—just being together. Thank you for all the help and the support. I have learned a lot from you and I love you for it. To Robin, I leave our long talks about all of our fears. We made it! So many times you had just the right words to make me happy. I thank you and love you very much. To Susy, I leave a man with an accent, griping sessions, secret crushes on the same guys (and teachers), a perfect score on your math tests and a healthy pair of tonsils. To Ellis, I leave a postcard from my next trip to France. To Lisa, I leave an endless supply of unicorns, Hobbits, Shakespeare . . . a loving mother and an austere but loving father and everything else that makes you so special. To Stuart I leave a rainy day in Paris. To Alan I leave a terrible movie. To Chell, I leave the longest friendship I have ever had. Twelve years! At 25 let's have a party. To John I leave a fabulous birthday party and a birthday cake. To Tom I leave tickets to the Superbowl (only if the Cowboys play), memories of Roger, the theme from the Jontue commercial and a plate of fried chicken, blackeyed peas, and collard greens . . . (you espeece de racist). To Elizabeth, I leave the future. One day you will have it all, and with a little luck so will I. I love you. To my mother and father and Jane and Stephen and Starr and Max and Fred, I love you all very much. To Greenhill I leave my gratitude. It was sheer hell at times, but it was worth it.

I, Mark S. Mayer, upon the completion of 14 years at Greenhill, will to the following: The 10 other seniors who have made it since pre-school: the satisfaction of graduating. Rob A: a ride to school & a '66 mustang. Stone: movies, B. J. & Rocky XXX. Doug G.: your backhand & M. S. doubles matches. Peppard: another plane ride. C. S.: a glance & an answered call. T. Hollywood P: an unwanted "flak" jacket & the royalties from your umpire. Mary: my calls for help & a continued friendship. Alan B: your athletic ability & hope for the best. Bo: grades to average, 2 midnight movies in a row & your respectable taste in music. Jay: the NFL, Bo to disagree with. Leland: a flight from Oak Cliff & H. W. to do on time and thanks for the advice. Cheri: tennis & a long friendship. Mark B: french classes, sarcasm & a good team to play on. Mike M: doubles to improve & more time to play. Winton: your willingness not to conform. Mr. Gammill: a simple "yes" or "no" answer & my deepest appreciation for the help and confidence. Mr. Blanchard: countless miles & thanks for your constant encouragement. Coach Hall: my thanks for the help & advice over the years. Mr. Kittleman: the Metro League & SPC to win, St. Marks to beat, the tennis program to improve, and undefeated season, my sincerest appreciation & thanks for the years of friendship & encouragement. I have learned a lot from Greenhill and the people here, both good & bad. The road has been long & hard, but well worth the effort. The hours in class and on the court have also taught me a lot. Things are not ending, but just about to begin. The times spent here I will not forget, nor will Greenhill.

I, Mike Metzger, being of stubborn mind and unique body, do hereby leave to the following: To my parents, all my love and respect, but most of all, thanks for all the opportunities you have given me. Mr. Kittleman, thanks for being so patient.

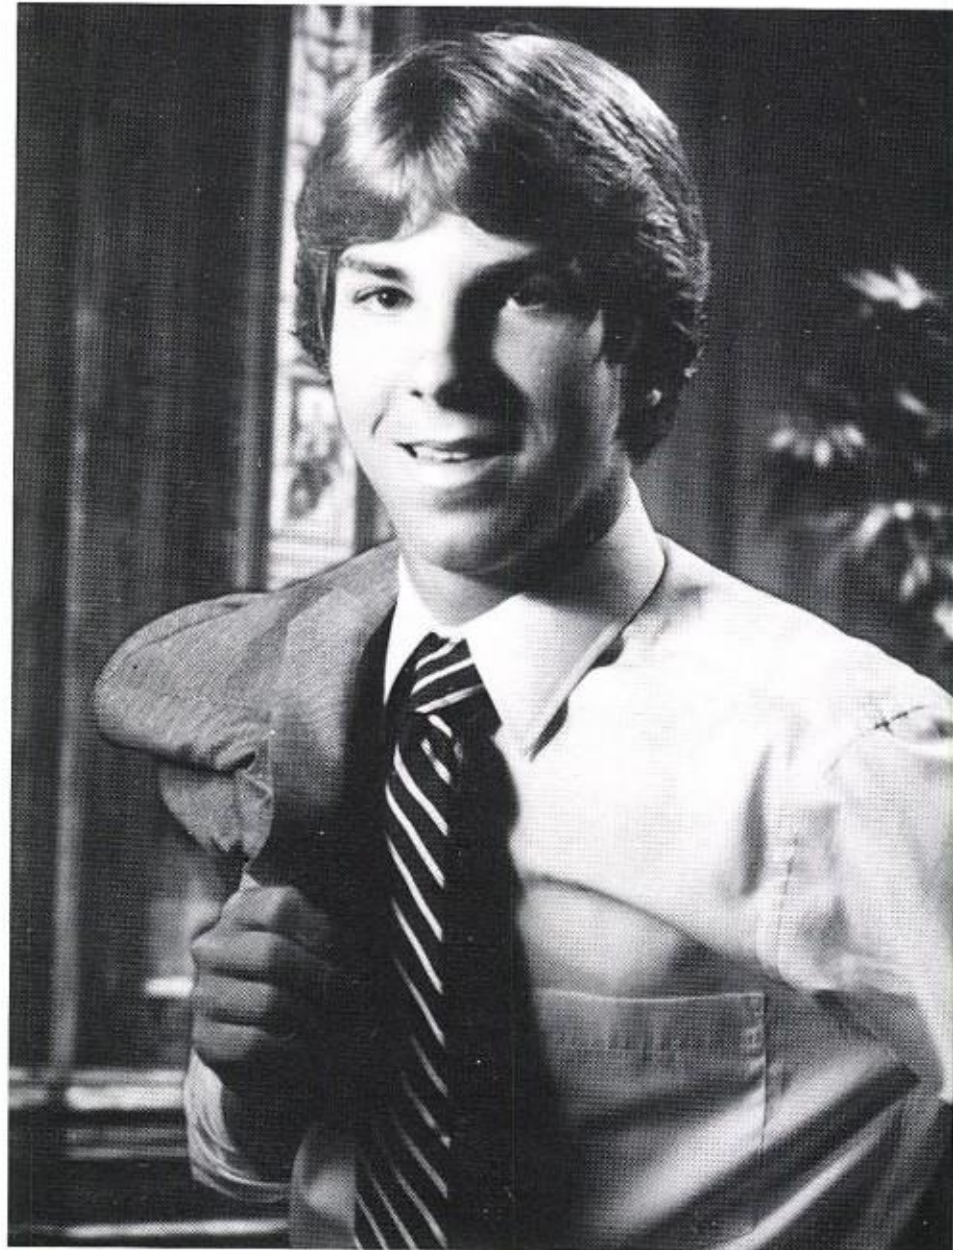

To Cheri, a sometimes friend, thanks for getting me into the Hill. To Elizabeth, a night at your house if I win our bet. To Linda and Laura, a thirty year old, mature ice hockey player for both to share, and thanks for all the homework and labs I copied. To Natalie, some driving lessons and someone who cares about you, Bo. To Paula, a date with M.S. and a tennis scholarship. To Susan, a trip to Colorado, a date with Rob, and a good shrink (because I don't know all the answers). To Sam, a date with any athlete and a book on how to kiss. To Beth, a wild time at The Cars, any guy at St. Marks (your choice) and my car. To Kim, Jane's party and talking about how boring a certain person is.

To Bo, Natalie and Mick, our plan that never happened, an almost fun time with Barbie, and Julius Caesar. To Bernie, a baseball scholarship, the Van Halen concert which I'll always remember, and a date with D. D. To Jay, all the dates you can handle, my car, and the hopes of being tall. To Rob, Sylvester and Billy, USC, and a bottle of wine which you won't drink. To Leland, AggieLand and a trip to Oklahoma with Duggy Poo and the team. To David, a trip to Trinity Christian to meet Mary, and a date with Deidre. To Mark, a healthy body and Bob as a doubles partner.

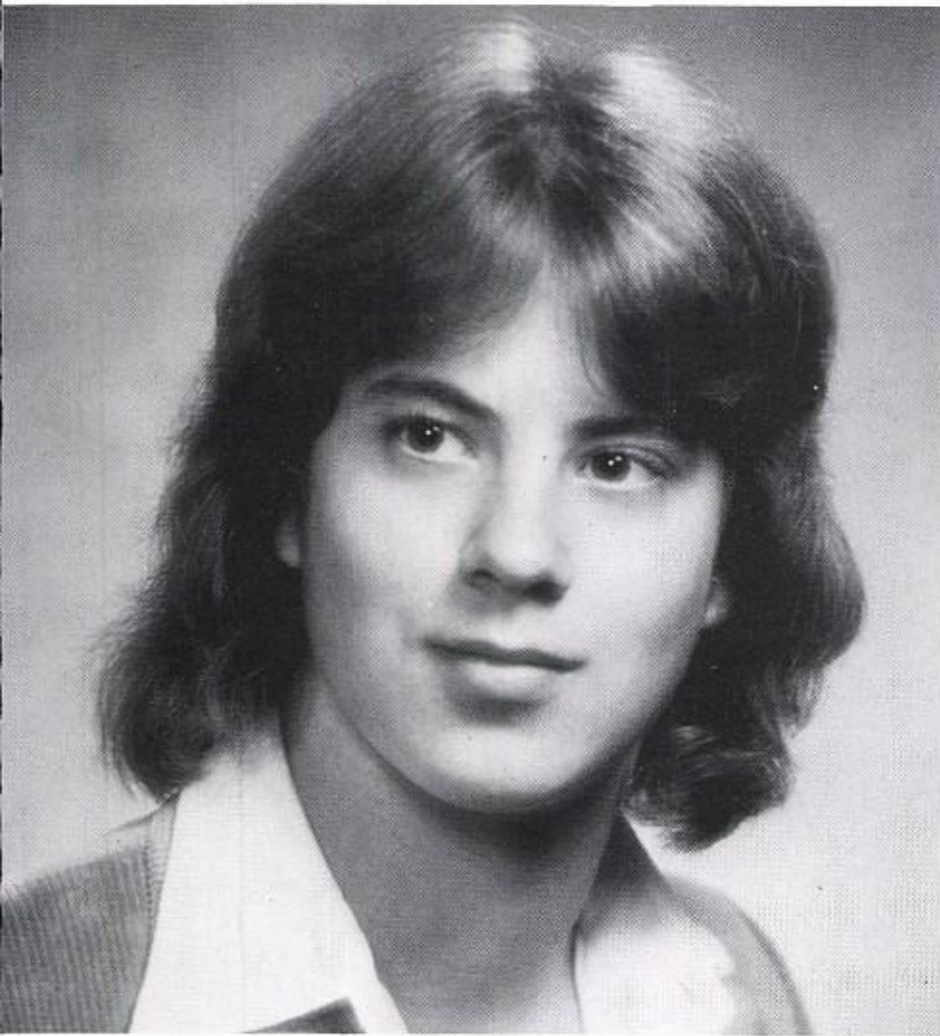

To Susan L., I leave you all our great times, and some not so great (one which involved cleaning up my car), all the hours I talked to you and your mom on the phone, and my love forever. You're the best!

So long.

beans . . . Dugulus . . . sounds like you just woke up . . . "You worm!"
. . . incessantly harassed by Somer & Telford . . . football . . . easily

I, Doug Miers, being of burnt out mind but otherwise sound health, do hereby leave the following memories to their respective recipients:
To Rob, wasted days and wasted nights, the DCCC Rush concert,
"Circumstances", and a knob for Christmas. To Ellis, a body building kit and a little competence in debate. To Hollywood, your own nickname and someone else's laugh. To Sevak, a lifetime supply of egg sandwiches and a Khomeine doll. To Stomper, a book entitled How to pick up girls and a Robert Redford mask. To Kent, a pair of brass knuckles for hitting Ellis. To Mike, the Calculus Award and the Waterslide. To Asner (alias Leonard) a communist pamphlet and an abstraction. Leland, do you remember Peppard's party? (I don't think so!) To Money, a set of electric hair curlers. To Jeff, a Marshall brain and the summer of '79. To Smitty, a gun for the fights. To Lipper, plenty of P and lots of buzz. To Mary, Six Flags and something that might have been.
To Chell, T. R. at Lester's, and to Cheri I leave a "G" on the gym.
As for Mr. Norris, at last! An advisor who can handle me for over a year! (and good luck with your new humor editor, you'll probably need it.) To Mr. Williams, my thanks. I learned more in 205 about myself than I thought I could at school. To Mr. Beall, a successful debate program. To Mr. Kittleman, a Jay android for all your future classes he walks, talks, chews gum in class and always has the first wrong answer. To Mr. Allen, a positive attitude and a little class. To Magister /ellios, an everlasting memory—but are you still out there? Somewhere?
To Mr. Gammill, an excellent history teacher, (wherever you are). Finally, to Coach Smith I leave my greatest respect but a scrawny line in '81.
To the rest of Greenhill's students I say goodbye and good riddance.
To G. H. parents I leave many years of increasing tuitions, and don't forget about donation requests (I'm sure they won't let you).

Now I've gained some understanding
Of the only world that we see Things that I once dreamed of
Have become reality

These walls that still surround me
Still contain the same old me
Just one more who's searching for
The world that ought to be

All the same
We take our chances
Laughed at by time
Tricked by circumstances
Plus ca change
Plus c'est la meme chose
The more that things change
The more th stay the same

Don't look back—a new day is breakin'
It's a new horizon and I'm awakin' now
Oh I see myself in a brand new way
The sun is shinin'—The clouds are breakin'
'Cause I can't lose now—there's no game to play
The road is callin'—today is the day.

Boston

In the hours of distress and misery, the eyes of every mortal turn to friendship;
In the hours of gladness and conviviality, what is our want? It is friendship.
When the heart overflows with gratitude, or with any other sweet or sacred sentiment, what is the word to which it would give utterance? A friend.

I, Chell Newberry, leave to the following: My parents: more respect than is sometimes recognizable, a whole lot of thanks and the kid who was the exception to all of your rules. Dad: an extra golf ball for those times when the ball has a mind of it's own. Mom: a deck of cards and a red Corvette. Trish, Dave, Tabitha, and?, many nights filled with anger, tears, and laughter. Thanks—ILY. Joseph O.—a "broken" thumb, an Eastern Onion birthday, and much admiration. To Kathy, one more term paper—(someday I'll learn to type—but don't count on it!) Mary—the best, the worst, and everything in between—our friendship will never fade. Dr. Winz—Mr. Right, a 450-S1, Ms. Roman's A&M, those afternoons off-campus, the memories of our friendship—Upper School wouldn't have been the same without you.
Susan—you know who!! one of many great summers, RTL, and a promise—I'll always be within reach. Natalie—Notes about ?, frantic phone calls, the best junior year possible and a friend forever. Erin—a license, a car, someone to count on and the resolution NOT to swear—DAMN IT!!! Cindy—12 very different years and a friend.
Alan—someone to put your arms around, cheer up, and ONE date.
Leland—A&M. Robert A.—The song "I'll get even with you," a concert with your "girlfriends," and some tact. Jennifer R.—Mr. Aardvark, concerts, C of S, THOSE guys, and a jogging partner. Frank—2 great dates and whatever it is you want, sorry I don't know but you understand.
Lynn—great times, talks, and frizzy perms. Laura—a Texas accent, a silver RS, and your laugh. David K.—a cutlass, an open alley at DC's,
The Cars, and lots of laughs. Albert—someone to send to Weight Watchers. Adrien—Heck's slumber parties. To my teachers—more thanks than possible and a raise. Mr. Piel—4 crazy years and zillions of thanks. To everyone I have any kind of memory of, I leave those memories. That is the best I could give or receive. Later.

I, Paige Parsons, being of rebellious mind and only slightly short body leave the following: To Corey: a room to put your drums in, your own bathroom, a pro contract in the sport of your choice, and two more years on the hill, good luck! To the Butches: a great freshman and sophomore year and a special friendship. To MSZ: a ninth grade crush you never knew about and friendship. To Lester: Lesterism and great parties. To Thomas Hollywood: freshman homecoming, a trip to the fair and luck in the future. To R. N.: someday it'll all catch up with you. To Staci: long talks, Walon and Willie, a friendship that, I hope, will keep growing and happiness always. To Diane M.: 7th-12th and a friendship that means a lot to me. To Erin: The ability to stand up, your Russian heritage, doritos, and long exhale, and friendship. To Ann and Kamma: pizza and beer at the end of the street. D. J.'s, late night phone calls, the car of your dreams and everlasting friendship. To Laura: long talks, a trip to Austin (I'll drive), the ability to throw a softball to 1st base, a quarter pounder without cheese, onion rings, and a cheery pie. You mean a lot to me. Let's keep in touch! To Barb: (I hope this list doesn't get out of hand) late night excursions, a trip to the zoo, studying at the library, (if we could only stop laughing), Arby's and a jamocha shake, guacamole, a double play, Weatherford?!, a trip to Austin, a dip cone, a yogurt, ETSU, a few tears and lots of laughs! Thanks for making my last two years so special. I love you! If you ever need anything, I'll be around. I love you! To Greenhill: I leave you all your rules and regulations that I never could figure out and one big goodbye guaranteed to last for as long as possible. Later . . . much.

To Sevak, our shared taste in women. Tom, a gram cracker, a glass of milk, a nap and longevity. David B., my respect for your tenacity. To Mr. Foote, I leave his affinity for diplomacy. To Mrs. Kuykendall, I leave the knowledge that without her, I'd still be in Freshman English. To Peyton, I leave an unbreakable gold necklace. Cindy, a night on the town. To Mary, I leave the problems of a Canadian pilot in a strange city, your half of the phone bill and the famous line, "But I swear I'm 18." To Cheri, I leave your sexy wink. To Chell, don't forget the night after we graduate from college. To Kenny (the last of a dying breed), I leave Samurai Night Fever, a case of Fosters, and HER, wherever we may find her. To Ellis, Capitalism, "Better dead than Red!" To Missy and Sue, I leave fried zucchini and my love. To Alan, I leave the meaning of the word "stud" and the warning that if you ever snow ski better than I, I'll take my name back and everyone will call you Ray. You're a great friend, take care. To Dad, according to B. D., "If you just keep hittin' at it, somethin's bound to cut loose." And to Greenhill, after nineteen years of Kathy, Bob, Mary Ann and Alan, THANX!

We dreamers have our ways
Of facing rainy days,
But somehow we survive.
 We keep the feelings warm.
 Protect them from the storm,
 Until our time arrives.
Then one day the sun appears
And we come shining through those lonely years.
 Just aim beyond the clouds;
 And rise above the crowd;
 And start your own parade.
'Cause when I chased my fears away
That's when I knew that I could finally say
 I made it through the rain.

After writing about twenty different drafts of this thing, I've come to the conclusion that there is no way for me to say all that I want to say. So I won't try. I will try to let each individual know how I feel rather than spend thousands of words here. In my fifteen years here there have been many memories and many special people: Mr. Fulton, Mr. Foote, Coach Clasby, Mr. Manes, Miss Roman, Madame White, the lunchroom and playground gangs etc. You all have my respect and affection. To Doug: I leave enough laughs to last a lifetime, and there will be more. Huds and Junky: I leave some "heavy talks" and a promise to keep in touch. Erin, I leave you Dede, the Sox, and Addison policeman and a can of pop (?), plus me and my friendship. Lastly, to David, John, Mom, and Dad: thanks for everything, I love you, and you won't ever be able to get rid of me. I can't name everyone who has given me something special, but I hope that I have left something special in some way to each of you. Thanks Greenhill! I'll never forget you.

And now if my next eighteen years are as good as my first eighteen, I'm in for one helluva life. Catch ya later.

Bo: stripes at Tom Thumb, lunch at Chili's, letters from "the prison" & thanks for being there. LY! Bernie: "I can't stand it. I gotta hold my nose!" MDBYN! the middle lane of the water slide, my head will never be the same. Val: your & D's jokes all thru Algll & when I open my mouth Mrs. B's "Deirdre, shut up." Laura: a good 1st impression & a trip to Austin; Jay: the "Christopher Reeves" look; Di: a summer at Sangers; Leland: success in Mr. W's class; Alan P: windshield wipers for Mr. I's class & a good French grade; Mrs. Ellis: thanks for the lessons in bringing mind & body together. My parents: thanks for sending me to G-hill & then putting up with me. ILY! Mark: If you love something, set it free, if it comes back it's yours forever—you're mine! and also I leave you a long wait that was well worth it. It is impossible for me to try & fit on this page all the people & events I want to be accounted for, but still all will be remembered in my heart. Everyone take care! I'll miss ya! Bye!!!

Robert Felix Segovia

Baseball 9 10 11 12

I, Robert Segovia, because I have a body, submit my first will and testament to the Greenhill School. I would like to leave the following

First of all, I would like to thank all my teachers that have taught me throughout the years for teaching me what I know. Or what I think I know. To T. "Hollywood" P. I leave one more late night drive through downtown with the gang, world wide fame, a stronger tire, and a keg of Doctor Pepper. To the Gross I would like to leave a turbo engine Carrera so that he would drive a little faster (and not hold up traffic, ha-ha), the college of his choice, a yard full of snakes, and a replacement for "pepper" when the time comes. Oh, and thanks for the French lessons "Au Mon Dieu"—"Pa Mal". To Glaze I leave a car theft alarm, many Miniature Schnauzers, and a new set of radials for when you find your car. To Robert A. I leave many more "kickbutt" days in class. To Mark Asner I leave a future chess match with (Segoski). To Ross I leave my Religious thoughts so that he can gain infinitesimal wisdom in God. To K. D. I leave thanks to you for letting me see your notes when I needed them. To J. W. I leave the question "How many more days of school?" To J-bird I leave a Chinese dinner of Beef and Broccoli. To Bernie I leave good luck when you make it in the "Big Leagues". To Greg I leave 2 more years of eating in the science building alone. (The Big 3 are graduating). To Sevak I leave an American flag and a pizza. To the young cheerleaders (except Beth), I leave the wish for a decent football team. (It will not be good when the 1981 seniors leave). To any of my other friends I do not mention (you know who you are) I give my best wishes and thanks for being my companions here at Greenhill. Again I would like to express my sincere gratitude for what you have made of me. I would like to give special thanks to Mr. Gonzales who served as my advisor for four years. Also I would like to thank my parents for spending the "millions" they did by letting me go to Greenhill. Finally I say goodbye!!

"It is a funny thing about life, if you refuse to accept anything but the best you very often get it."
Somerset Maugham

I, Susan Marie Smith, do hereby bequeath the following: To Mr. Gonzales: my love and thanks for your careful guidance and understanding. To Alan P: a friend. To Mike M: "Pleeze!" To Lynn: a game of tennis, cha cha cha, and "Touch me and I'll break your arm!" To Carolyn: a painting by Claude Monet entitled "Impression—Sunrise", Le Harve (remember?), infrequent but long conversations, a little sister, and our friendship. To Daryl S. (alias Lysander): a special friendship, some Mediterranean fish, "beauteous Hermia", "Boy, you played a mean game, but now . . ." and good luck in future endeavors. To Suzanne: oreos (double stuff, of course), midnight shopping sprees, Rob!, the graveyard, how ironic, hunky, a middle name—Sleazanne, the 4th of July, and a fantastic friendship which I hope continues . . . oh yea, one last thing, "Funky says you're a . . . ouch! Funky bit me!" To Clay B: three methods of relieving minor sunburn pain, and the fact that B. Radley and Atticus love you BIG LOTS. To Scott: happiness, a lady deserving of you, all of my love, and the hope that we will always retain our closeness. To Michael: two bottles of champagne, one for drinking and one because accidents do happen, and my love always. There are no words to tell you how I feel, and it isn't enough to say what I think. To my parents: my deepest respect and admiration, and my thanks for providing me with the opportunity to receive a good education. I love you both more than you can possibly imagine. Finally, I leave, to strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.

"I do not know what I may appear to the world; but to myself I seem to have been only like a boy playing on the seashore, and diverting myself in now and then finding a smoother pebble or a prettier shell than ordinary, whilst the great ocean of truth lay all undiscovered before me."

Sir Isaac Newton

Stuart Somer

"A dream is not a very safe thing to be near, I know, I had one once. It's like a loaded pistol with a hair trigger: if it stays alive long enough, somebody is going to be hurt. But if it's a good dream, it's worth it. There are not many dreams in the world, but there are a lot of human lives."

I find it difficult, if not impossible, to document nine years of learning and achievement within the limits of a three-hundred and fifty word passage. The true substance of the friendships which I have established cannot be portrayed by a mere listing of isolated events and objects; therefore, I will not attempt to recollect any of these. To all my friends who have witnessed my failures and triumphs, I leave you with the knowledge that you have been instrumental in my growth and maturity. To my parents, I leave my gratitude and respect.

I, Cathy Steinberg, who after fifteen years at the Hill, feel it is my right to have an overworked mind and body, leave the following: Leland: 7th grade memories, the operator, girls, and our special friendship forever, Jenny: the Mastercharge that changed your wardrobe . . . don't change that or your specialness. Lisa: a neighbor, oreo cookie ice cream plus 3000 calories, and my carwash. Take care of our brother. Loren and Lauren: one more year 'til privileges, two more years at the Hill . . . good luck. Laura and Linda: all our triple dates. Sevak: sixth periods and a new friendship. Kelly: PCGAWD, crazy times and thoughts, and a friend for life. Dana: a lifetime plus six weeks of friendship. Julie Ray: a sister and a friend for life. Jay: going steady, Chiquitas, homecoming, and that fourth grade special you will always be to me. Laurie: a real I.D. . . . in a few days, and a shady but colorful friendship. Kathi: from one to another, Saturday tennis, boy problems, untalkable jellybeans, and a friendship that has and will last forever. Valencia: and ear for Erwin, the other for food and fashion, a BBYO and club membership, and sister princess forever. Lori: an assured good time, S.P.C., smiles and tears, secrets and plans, and our unchangeable closeness. I missed you this year. Anita: our sneaky plans, the lake, eating, shopping, little wrecks, fun times PTM, the Arry's, and a friendship everlasting and special. Jeff: the telephone, the front seat, two more years (do you think you'll make it without me?), and my love and friendship forever. Robb: the front seat and phone, only one person to fight with, and a friend and sister who cares. Mrs. Kuykendall: thanks for being that special friend. Your persistance got me through. Mr. Kittleman: since fourth grade you have helped me grow . . . all my thanks and respect. Mr. Gonzales: off campus lunches, matchmaking, and all the trouble you think we caused . . . muchas gracias. Mom and Dad you have given me every possible opportunity . . . and all the love, caring, and understanding to go with it. You have all my love and admiration. And to Greenhill: . . . fifteen years later, I've made it and I'm leaving (legally)!!

Walk the line, it's not easy.
I must stand alone.
It's the kind of life I've chosen, right or wrong.
I can feel near me always Something to life up to,
Someone to depend upon.
When I have fallen from grace,
When I grow weak from the pace,
I can feel the breath of gentle winds on my face.
And when the world crashes in all around me,
Then my angel will come and roll away the stone
Like a hand reaching down from the heavens.
Anywhere, any time, in my mind, I know
That a pair of sweet eyes
Is watching me wherever I go.
Is it real? Am I dreaming?
Sometimes I don't know,
But I want to believe it's so.
Is it profane or divine?
Am I insane? I feel fine.
I can close my eyes, but I still see it shine.

Todd Rundgren

I, Stuart Alan Stephenson, being of loud mind and thin body, do hereby leave these worldly possessions to these equally worldly people: To Marc, with a "c" Asner, otherwise known as Leonard, I leave my superb ping pong skills so that he may pass this knowledge onto others. To Reverend Ross, I leave the last remaining remnants of our long lost parents. Please, Ross, do not leave them in an airport as well. To both Marc and Ross, I leave the answer to the death of the missing Kennedy; his name escapes me at this moment. To Miss Heather Hutton, I leave an extra long rib tickler so that she may attack from a distance. Whenever you happen to be walking Forest, remember me. To Mr. John Murphy, I leave the strong regret that I didn't get to know him as well as I would have liked, have a good life, John. To Miss Cindy Leland, I leave an open heart and warm thanks for having such a sympathetic soul. To Mr. Williams, I leave all of the gratitude in the world for my increased knowledge of the symphony world. May other students be as lucky as I am. To Mr. Tunnell and the rest of the Greenhill faculty concerned, I wish to express my deepest gratitude for the extra special help I received upon arriving here. It helped me greatly. Lastly, but certainly not least, to Miss Lisa Roberts, I leave all the love and respect I have for her. Believe it or not, Lisa, you have helped me sort out many problems I didn't know how to work out. I wish that I, too, may acquire that special power for understanding.

Charles Phillip Turner

Being but men, we walked into the trees
 Afraid, letting our syllables be soft
 For fear of walking the rooks,
 For fear of coming
 Noiselessly into a world of wings and cries.

If we were children we might climb,
 Catch the rooks sleeping, and break no twig,
 And, after the soft ascent,
 Thrust out our heads above the branches
 To wonder at the unfailing stars.

Out of confusion, as the way is,
 And the wonder that man knows,
 Out of the chaos would come bliss.

That, then, is loveliness, we said,
 Children in wonder watching the stars,
 Is the aim and the end.

Being but men, we walked into the trees.

My friends—I love you. The "wierd people", you know you're wierd, face it! Thank you for making Greenhill a second family to me.
 Mother, Dad, and Tiffany—I love you. I am grateful for the support you have shown me. Greenhill, you are the finest in Dallas, continue.

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village, though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

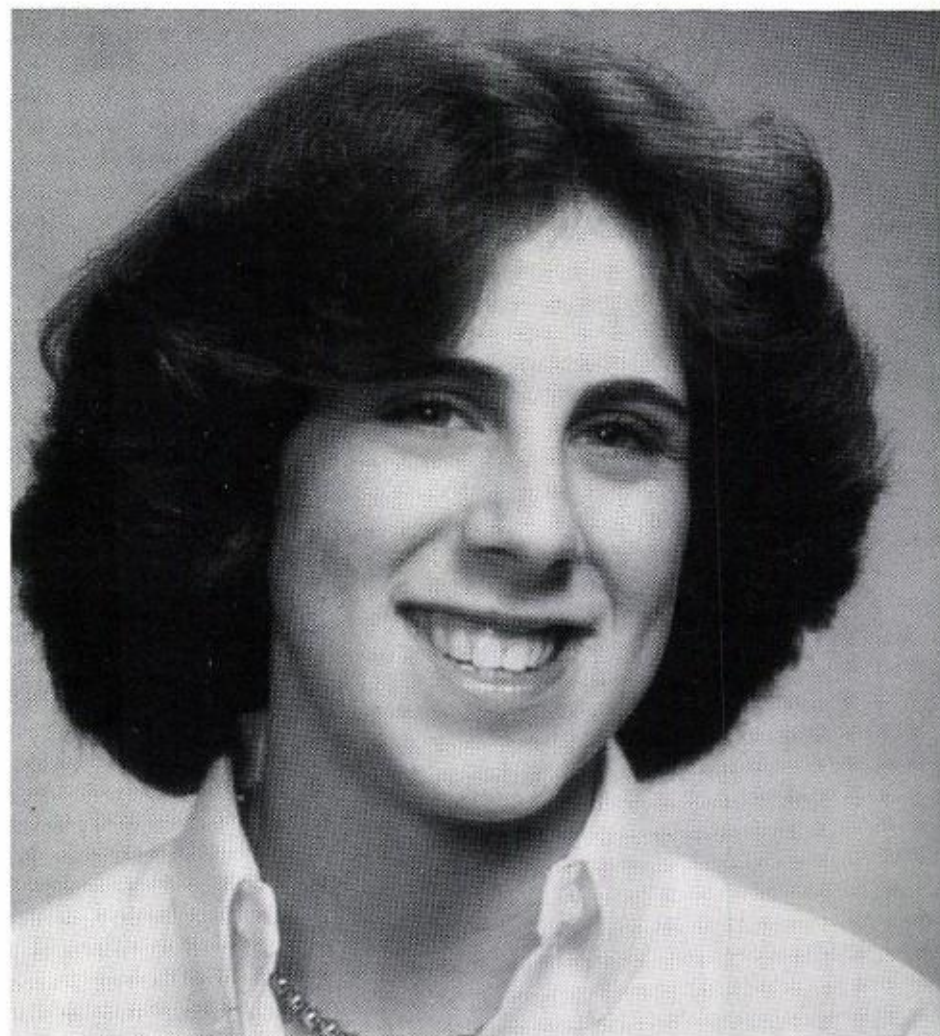

The woods are lovely, darkened and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Robert Frost

I, Ellen Weinstein, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to the following: Mom and Dad, I leave you my love and admiration. Thank you for everything. Senor Gonzales, thanks for making Greenhill bearable. Mrs. Wolfram, thanks for helping me out of Greenhill and into college. Mrs. Kuykendall, you have my admiration for being what a teacher can and should be. Kelly, I leave Chili's, P.E. excuses, my car, exams, off campus adventures, your stupid cat, Dobie and all our plans for U.T. and a very special friendship. Dana, alias Danny Bro, I leave Israel '79, some height, G.W., and our friendship, muchas gracias and amen. Robin, I leave a 14 year friendship, Alexandria and Washington D.C., Karen Wycoff, a free coke, and the knowledge that our friendship will continue for another 14. L. S. (Greenhill dropout), I leave Mario and Alberto's, margaritas, B-52s and the Cars, Callaud's, a driving school, a V.V. club membership and friends forever. To V.S. I leave MSFW, S.B. and P.F., R.H. (ha ha), CoCo's and our friendship. To those I have not mentioned, I leave my thanks for you are all very special. And to Greenhill, I leave my gratitude for making these past 8 years worthwhile.

If you love something,
 Set it free.
 If it comes back to you,
 It's yours forever.
 If it doesn't,
 It never was.

I, Jennifer Wigley, leave the following memories (in hopes they won't be forgotten) to the following: Kristen: the Braidy Bunch, 10¹/₂ in shorts, my driving ability, our "math" notes, sincere talks, J.L.G.M., and a great friendship. LYLAS. Heather: SHAKEDOWN CRUISE!!! poppies, the Jr. dance, SPC, horsies, a Burger King toy, playing in the rain, our awards, fortune telling abilities, the cave, mutiny, and our special friendship. LYLAS. Kelley: July 11, Oct. 10, ballet, John, Jessie J. A. and guys, guys, guys. Guy: late night talks, advice, growing up, a sundae, secrets (I'll never tell), a hug and kiss, and thank you. You're a great friend. Jon: May 9, your will power, a strip tease in the commons, and realization. ILY. Ross: a batch of brownies, a can of lemonade, Rock Lobster, and thanks, Rev. Mark: one dead body and "She's so cold." Stuart: a cat named S. H., and a decorated car. Steve H: a shoulder to cry on, advice, the ability to be a great ballerina and a good friend. Steve G: a block of ice, aggressiveness, and wrestling. Kevin: a sixteen year old girlfriend Angela: doritos and donuts, cross country meets, secrets, and our favorite subject: GUYS!! Alan: one coat hanger and a room to be "all alone with yourself." Paul: a carwash, little green men, and a trip to planet Claire. Rob: parties, my French, and our bet. Dean (my little yoyo): July 11, Sept. 1, Nov. 9, your fort, men with shiny badges, a baggie, Churches, my driving ability and love. Phil: a baby sitting job, "he's so cold", a van full of people, 5 extra pounds, frustration, a mile to walk and my love. Jacqueline (a rock-n-roll sister): my Van Halen, Stones, and Punk records. Tricia: my room, phone, clothes, and anything else you can grab. And lastly, to my parents: thanks for your love, patience and understanding, and my love forever, To Greenhill, I leave, but differently from when I came, without regrets of the change. Thank you.

Jennifer Wigley

William Bruce Wittenberg

When you wish upon a star,
Dreams will take you very far,
But when you wish upon a dream,
Life ain't always what it seems.

What'd you see on night of clear,
In the sky so very dear.

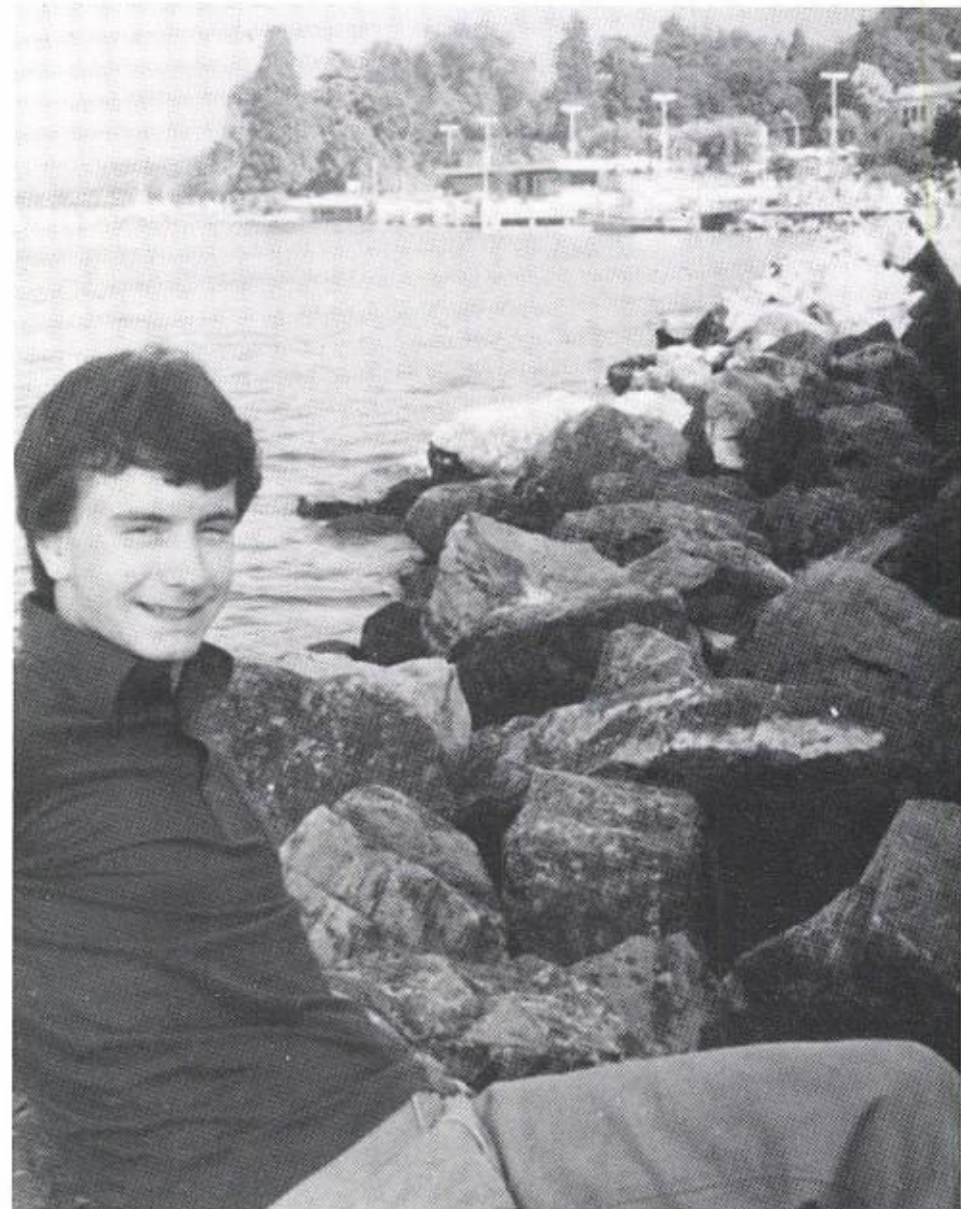

You're a shining star,
No matter who you are,
Shining bright to see,
What you can truly be.

Shining star comes into view,
To shin its watchful light on you Give you strength to carry on,
Make your body big and strong.

Born a man-child of the sun,
Saw work had just begun,
Found I had to stand alone,
Bless it now I've got my own.

So if you find yourself in need,
Listen to these words of heed
Be a giant, or grain of sand
Words of wisdom, yes I can.

I hate writing wills. Besides that, I don't know anyone well enough to write a will. So I won't. Do you know what it's like to move to a different part of the country for your senior year in high school? You don't know anyone. You don't know where anything is. Still, it has its advantages. You can create a whole new image for yourself. You can be any type of person you want to be because no one knows that's not the way you really are. It also has its disadvantages, though. You can't graduate with the friends you have been going to school with for 14 years. You can't see any of the teachers you have made friends with during your high school career. You can't eat lunch for 80 cent. The disadvantages are slowly working themselves into advantages, however. I've made a lot of friends I look forward to keeping in touch with, including some teachers. Besides, when you get right down to it, a school is a school. I'll end on this note: You are what you want to be, and this class has a lot of potential.

Dreamdrops trickle from my mind
 Mixing with my curls I find Thoughts I never knew were there
 As if I'd forgotten how to care.
 Fingerpainting pictures bright
 The image awakes to my delight.
 Within the lace reality
 There are colors I have yet to see.

After a decade on the Hill, I, Dana Zale, leave the following: To Cindy: witticisms from Mr. Rogers, a ride home, the correct spelling of Wensday and pronunciation of derived, all our nasty secrets about you know who, a night with Barishnikov, too many study sessions, and the future presidency of NM. You are a very special friend to me and I could have never made it without you. LY! To Robin: paranoia, the fact that one can hear through walls, portrait of two middle school snobs, senior fun and my love. To Bill: "weenies" and a "supah" friendship. To Alan: a couple of "Digames" and victory in s.c. To Mike M.: a free B-day meal at Chili's, countless unwelcome weenie attacks, Israel '79, and sincerity. To Ellen: one whole banana bread, memories of the Amen Bros., fun with ideas, and love. To Cathy S.: the privilege of calling me Dana Rose and the L.E. experience. To Tom P.: a handful of screaming "enfants" and my admiration. To Doug G.: one type written article turned in on time, a dozen Ed.'s notes, and congrats on a job well done. To Susie S.: an "A" without effort and best of luck always. To Anita F. and Diane T.: friendships that began at Pershing. We made it! To Julie R.: the proverb "grades aren't everything" and my best. To Jennie K.: our mutual ability to redirect success, cutesie announcements, and the future of Greenhill. To Mrs. White and French V: dirty plays and fun with Franglais. To Mr. Manes: my thanks for five years of song and neglected lunches. To Dr. Buchanan: my deepest admiration for your patience and care; thank you! To Mrs. Eastus: my utmost appreciation for your guidance and interest in me. I have learned more from you in four thirds of a year than I'll ever realize. To Senor: the Nobel Prize for matchmaking, my thanks for your wise advice and ability to make me smile, and mi amor. To my parents: for this opportunity and your unending support, thank you will never be enough. I love you! To Greenhill: finally, I leave you with the pride you've given me.

Grandparents Day

Several hundred Greenhill grandparents braved chilling winds to share their grandchildren's experiences and enthusiasm. Grandparents Day, in only its fourth year, has become one of the school's most cherished events.

The Nutcracker

Greenhill's kindergarteners thrilled and amazed their parents with the 28th annual performance of The Nutcracker Ballet. Staged in the Greenhill Theater, this traditional production is one of the highlights of the kindergarten year.

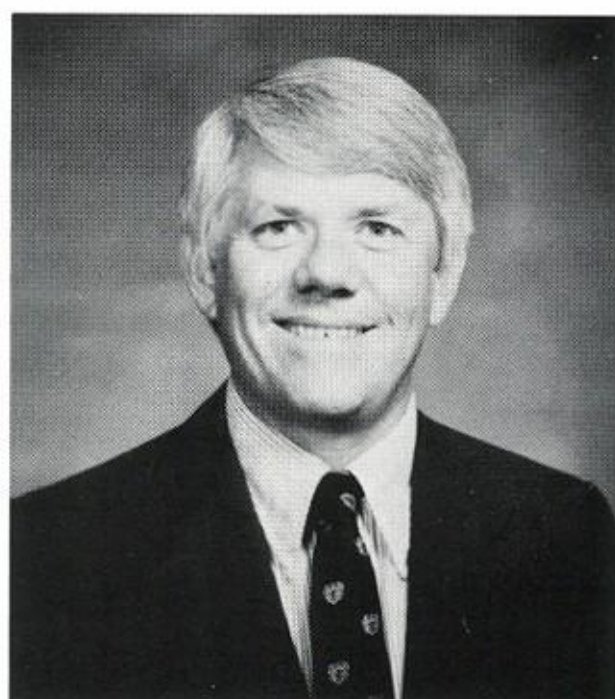

Faculty

Headmaster-Phillip G. Foote

This year, I was asked by the Board of Trustees to visit independent schools in the Northeast that were close to the philosophy and makeup of Greenhill. All of these nine schools were day, K-12 schools whose curriculum closely resembled that of Greenhill. The trip, as a whole, was a very rewarding experience. Greenhill is well known among the group of schools I visited. Our approach to both learning and teaching styles is highly respected and even exemplary. I found myself answering as many questions as I asked. The older, more traditional, are anxious to emulate that happy medium we have established between the positive elements of traditional education and the creative aspects of more innovative educational environments.

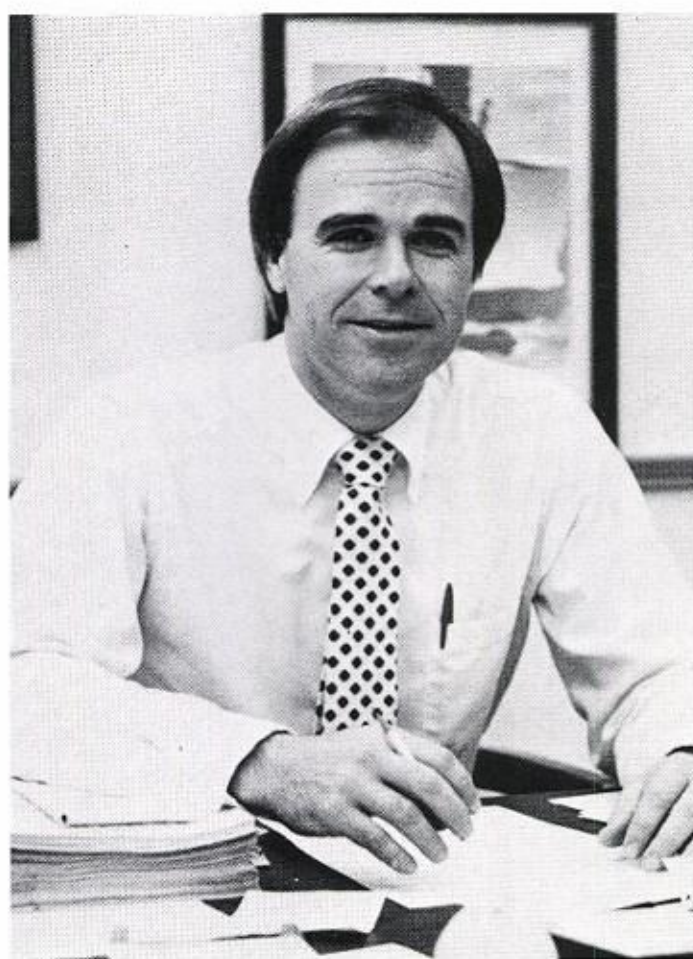

Greenhill, with its outstanding faculty, was an inspiration to other systems to continue the search for a rigorous, but also positive and creative learning experience.

Debate/Speech

Cheryl Turner, Sheli Barnett

Under the leadership of President Doug Miers, Greenhill's N.F.L. chapter experienced unusual success for a 1st-year squad. Sheli Barnett and Paul Herron won 1st place in novice debate at the Newman-Smith and Plano High School Speech Tournaments. Sheli teamed with Cheryl Turner to win novice debate at Hillcrest. Cheryl and Peter Henderson won 2nd place at the huge UTA Speech Tournament. Top novice speaker awards were claimed by Paul Herron at Jesuit (1st speaker) and by Cheryl Turner at Sam Houston (2nd speaker).

In just his 2nd tournament ever, Rod Lehman won 3rd place in Lincoln-Douglas debate at Jesuit and thereby became Greenhill's first student to receive an invitation to the Texas Forensics Association State Tournament in March. Coming very close to qualifying for the state tournament, as of this writing, were Kate Malin and Rob Stone, who twice reached the final round in duet acting, and also Simon Dickens, who reached the final round in prose reading at Jesuit. Making Greenhill's 1st mark in national competition, Paul Herron and Sheli Barnett accepted an invitation to compete in the prestigious Barkley Forum at Emory University, where they debated in a 3-day tournament from February 5-8.

The Evergreen

The entire staff. Section Editors: S. Barnett, D. Grossman, S. Hurd, J. Kassanoff, D. Miers, T. Perryman, S. Somer, D. Zale, L. Zweig.

The Evergreen succeeded in coming out with 9 issues this year, averaging one per month. In all the years since its early beginnings (1966), never before has the school newspaper been characterized by such regularity. But even more important, the paper this past year established itself as a credible work of journalism.

The Evergreen enjoyed the pride, support, and respect of the faculty, parents, administration, and student body as it never has before. The newspaper attracted student participation to such a degree that by mid-year, at least one out of every six or seven Upper Schoolers had been involved in its production. The Evergreen increased its circulation and began to appeal to larger audiences; letters were fielded from parents and students from other schools in the Dallas area. Contacts with editors and journalism departments of other schools were thus strengthened, and Greenhill as a whole gained a good deal of favorable exposure in the process.

The Evergreen this year did much more than inform and entertain its readers—it identified achievements within the academic community and called attention to problems and confronted controversial situations. The newspaper, however, never purported to offer a solution to every problem raised or supply an answer to every question asked. Its primary function was to stimulate the thoughts and provoke the actions of others.

The Evergreen has responsibly and maturely served as a probing and accurate expression of student opinion, demonstrating its effectiveness as a student newspaper.

The Greenhill Hornets, coached by Julian Smith, began the season with a great deal of promise. The Hornets opened the year with a strong showing against eventual state champion Fort Worth Christian, then proceeded to win two of its next three games to be 2-2 at midseason. Homecoming kicked off the second half of the season with what would prove to be possibly the toughest stretch of games in Greenhill history: Cassidy, St. Johns, and Fort Worth Country Day. All three resulted in devastating defeats. The season ended with two crucial losses to Trinity Valley and Cistercian. Though the Hornets ended the season at 2-7, their record was not indicative of the team's talent, nor did it reflect the team's awesome schedule. All in all, the team gained great experience and learned many lessons despite their record.

Field Hockey

Front row: K. Ravkind, L. Friedman—managers, C. Kruczek, A. Fonberg, J. Rosenberg, P. Parsons, E. Moran, C. Krevet, A. Stell, C. McCully—coach.
Back row: I. Kuykendall, A. Kupfer, S. Kasnetz, C. Anigan, B. Agnich, K. Rupert, M. Vitetta.

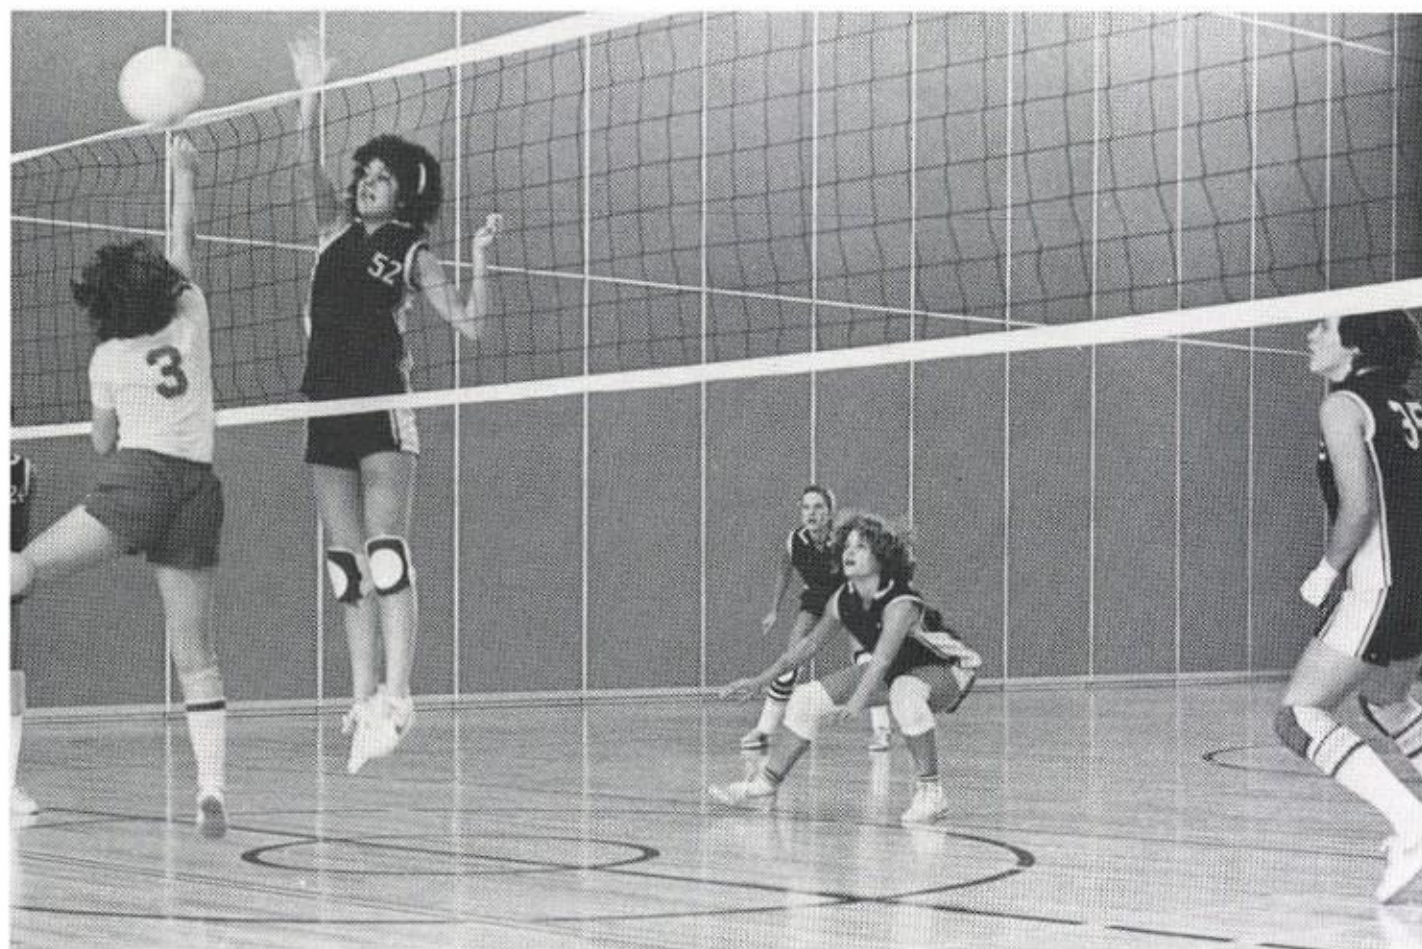

The 1980 Field Hockey team had an exciting season with captain Amy Stell leading the team as second team S.P.C., first team T.I.S.C. and Most Valuable Player. Special honors also went to Anita Fonberg and Barbie Gold. The team consisting of mostly younger players, has the potential talent to produce a winning season in 1981.

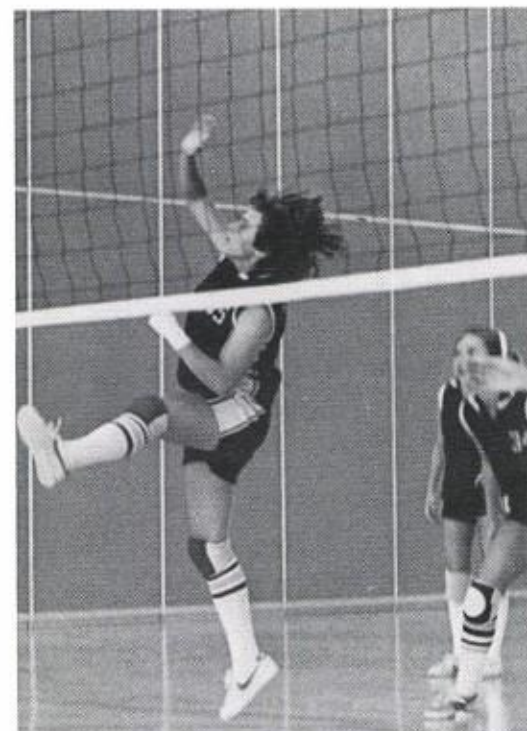

Girls Volleyball

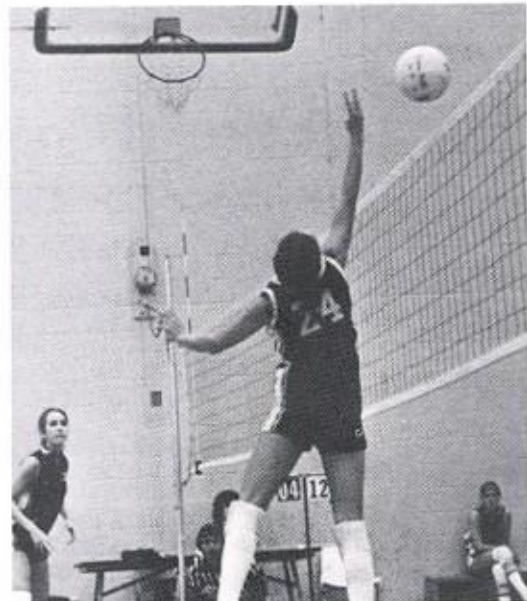

Front row: L. Prager, L. Marcus, P. Porter, D. Tobias, second row: J. Upfield, P. Beck, M. Rogers, A. Williamson, back row: Coach H. Heck, C. Newberry, J. Hutchings, not shown: C. Brotman, K. Sisson.

Boys Volleyball

Only having four of the necessary six players for volleyball, the boy's chances of winning S.P.C. looked bleak. After some heavy recruiting, a whole team was formed. Working hard with limited time and resources, the team developed well. At S.P.C., the team played at its best and took second place. Only St. Marks beat the G.H. team; St. Marks had a bigger, stronger (not smarter) team.

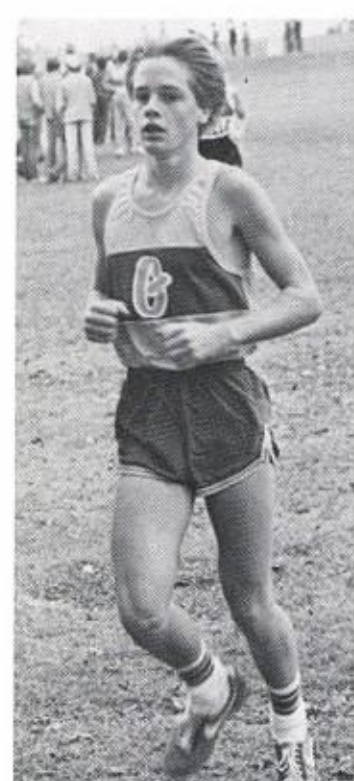

Cross Country

The 1980 Cross Country Team showed itself in possession of more potential than most people (including ourselves) realized. After several outstanding runners graduated last year, the 1980 Cross Country Team was not expected to have a statistically victorious season with three returning seniors and seven incoming freshmen. Most of the freshmen displayed a far greater running ability than Coach Steve Blanchard had expected. Through almost four weeks of "two-a-day" workouts, Mr. Blanchard helped change this running ability into winning ability. This year the Cross Country Team consistently placed from third to fifth place in all city events (in which there are twenty to thirty other teams, each being about five times as large as Greenhill's). The G.H. team won the 1980 T.I.S.C. Championship (been six times out of the previous seven years), and won second place in S.P.C. This year two runners distinguished themselves above the rest. Senior, Alan Beck Team Captain for the third year, and freshman Ken Kokko won All Conference T.I.S.C. and All Conference S.P.C. Additionally, they both shared the Most Valuable Player award.

Dear Sharon,

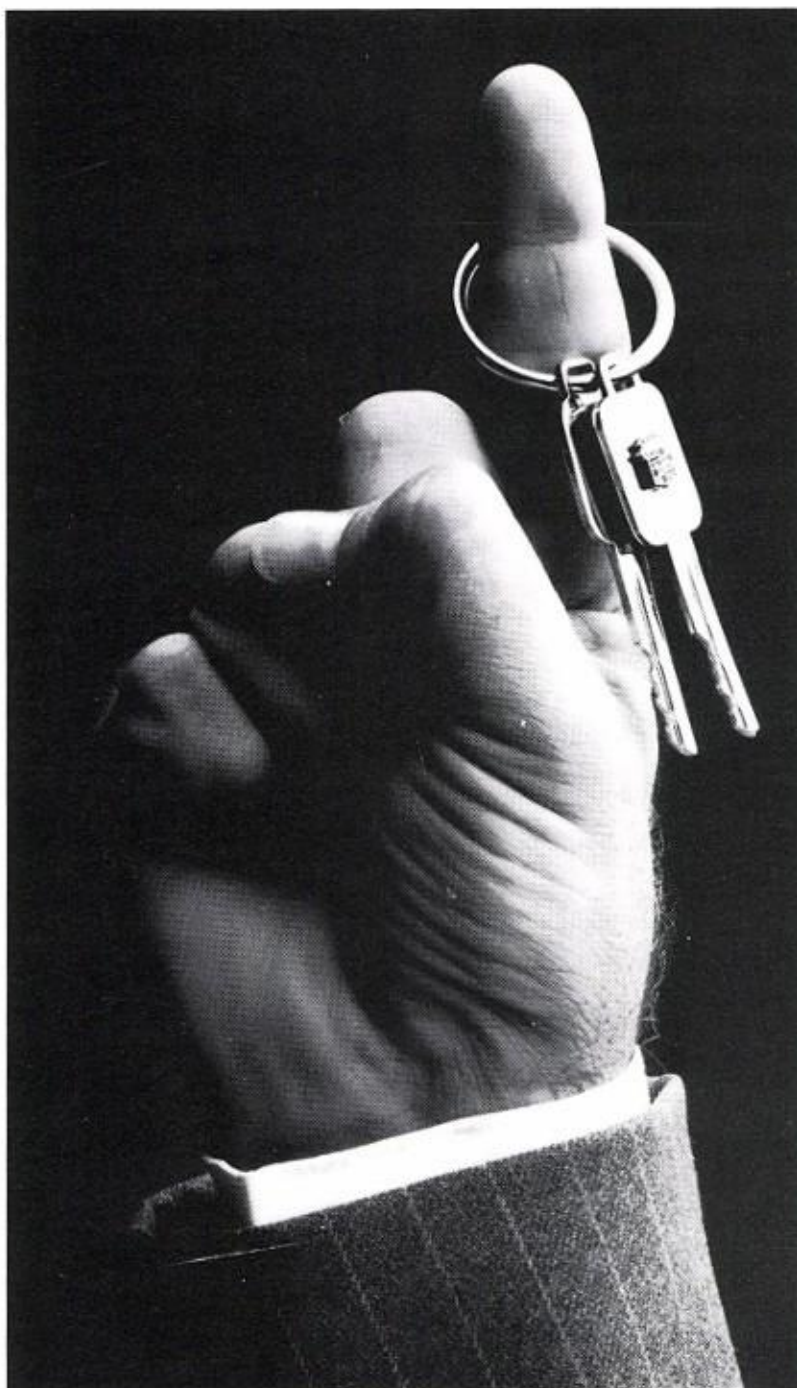

it all started while I was at Camp... the first "I love you's" came in letters last June... almost a year!!... let's go more! ClOB on Wed's with Mommy, Swim Cheekbunba, D.P, BIKINI'S, I Remember it all. (you're Beautiful) two-a days - ugh - football... we'll have to see. you were mander... you loved to watch Stab. I'm jealous. your Cruise... Hawaii... all these guys + you. how I worry - me? I only go Skiing, Suzy Chapstick, She's probably ugly Anyway. you have another cruise, How I'll worry Again - Shit! me - oh, I'll probably end up in Colorado Again. It's not that I don't trust you - it's just that I worry. If you had a boyfriend who was as good-looking AS the girlfriend - like Compliments of Kidder, Peabody & Co. Got, you would worry ALSO!... your sister... what can I say? She's a Sweet heart alright, but she hates me - why? I never did anything to ^{mean} ~~mean~~ her - Blander's on school - here I come! (will see)... the olympics... '88... '84 I doubt it! but you have to buy the plane and come with me!... football your favorite sport... my moms too. "But I'm gay back!" I'll probably end up on the Beach, or if you get it your way... the ~~stands~~ Stands... "Sharon, we're having a fundraiser, we're seeing Babes, would you like to contribute? you bought enough mtm!" my favorite song... Stairway to Heaven... your favorite, All (Dany's) my love... I guess I can put up with it. (t.k.) (at 12:00) "Alan, where did we go?" "I don't know, tell her we went to dinner + then got lost in a cliff!" (cont p. 242)

Of the ten highest-rated General Motors dealerships in America, only one is in Dallas.

Recently, General Motors surveyed customers all across the country through a program called the Customer Satisfaction Index. A survey that gauged the satisfaction of customers who had purchased a GM car the year before.

When all the information was compiled, Sewell Village Cadillac was not only one of the top ten General Motors dealerships in the country, we were also the highest-rated Cadillac dealership in all of Texas.

Why are our customers so satisfied? We think the reason is simple. When you buy a Cadillac, you deserve to be treated like a Cadillac owner. At Sewell Village Cadillac, that means service. When you buy a new Sewell Village Cadillac, you get the free use of one of our 40 loan cars, a Service Department that's open all day Saturday, and 84 service bays. You receive helpful, friendly assistance every time you walk into the showroom. Every time you drive into the Service Department.

Compliments of a Friend

well babe, I'm running out of Room + my hand hurts, (I complain too much) thanks for a great fresh year.
You made it complete... I love you very much, in fact I love you more. thanks for it all, & if ever you need help, call me. Good luck always. you have my everlasting love, Admiration, and Support,

WHAT can you say about a beautiful blonde blue-eyed daughter Who, in spite of getting mono
in the winter of her senior year (therefore finally being able to catch up on about four years of sleep) and who, in spite of being the only kid ever busted by a stray cat
when she snuck out of the house for a late date
and who, in spite of her parents wishing time didn't fly by so fast and she didn't fly by so fast in her new Trans Am—in spite of it all
has learned to read her own river—
you say
WE LOVE YOU
CONGRATULATIONS

I love you,

There's a lesson to be learned about jewelry.

It's pretty basic. At Zales we've been majoring in fine diamonds and precious metals for more than half a century. Our experience has taught our customers that fine jewelry, like a fine education, is one of the few enduring investments you can make in life.

Years from now the diamond you buy at Zales will be as fashionable as it is today—and certainly more valuable.

Come to Zales and graduate to the best things in life!
